Condon Advertiser

sacks or the barracks of France. Meanwhile, it is worth noting that with the exception of Great Britain, no one of the nations involved in the present war have generals of renown secured in active warfare. Kuropatkin, once considered a wonderful commander, went into eclipse, following the war with Japan. French and German officers have had nothing more serious than war with savages to put them to the test. With Great Britain, however, are Kitchener, Roberts, French and a host of lesser men, all tried. Tolstoi's mysterious stranger may not come from the tight little isle, but she certainly does not lack leaders at the present

THE FUTURE.

an eclipse every so often? If the system of things reads this way to the end of the book, what further disruption

The Kaiser wears a badge of infamy have the years to come?

IS THERE always to be "a next great war?" somewhere under the moment.

MORNING. NOON. EVENING SUBSCRIPTION RATES. Morning Edition. City.
10c per week.
$5.00 per year.
Noon Edition.
Vear by m Outside City. $3.00 per year.

$2.00 per year by mail.
Evening Edition,
Outside City. $2.00 per year

TELEPHONE NUMBERS. Private Branch Exchange, Connecting Ail Departments.
NIGHT CALLS.
6 a.m. to 8:80 a.m., and holidays.
8670—Business Department.
3671—Editors. 3672—Reporters. 3673—Job Printing.

To call night numbers use the word "ONLY" after giving the number. (Entered at London Postoffice for transmission through second class matter.]

TORONTO REPRESENTATIVE. F. W. Thompson, 56 Mail Building.

The London Advertiser Company,

TONDON, TUESDAY, AUGUST 11. HELP FOR THE SUFFERER.

before the whole world. When he has W ITH commendable promptness and equal energy, the women of Canada are leading in the different and the world has been issued, must movements for the care of the the white race. Teuton, Saxon or Slav wounded and distressed who will be sufferers by the war. The Daughters of the Empire are first in the field with a proposition to procure and wise to turn back the Hindu? What equip a hospital ship. The suggestion would happen should we suddenly taste came, we believe, from the ladies in encouver; has been taken up by the donal Chapter, and is receiving the hearty support of the different branches all over the Dominion. In London, the Municipal Chapter and its primary societies have been at work for the last few days, and have already secured in the neighborhood of a thousand dollars. Contributions to this fund can be handed in to the newspaper and railway ticket offices, and will be promptly acknowledged. This will be a distinctly Canadian It will show in a most pracalty of the Canadian women, and deserves every encouragement. The offer of the ship has already been merce, international amity, the indi-selves to the arms of the attendants and accepted. through which assistance can be sent horrible monster. He has polluted his quent shock. will be the Red Cross Society. This escutcheon, defiled his countrymen; his is an international organization acts do not measure the all-embracing which came into existence as the rewhich came into existence as the rewhich came into existence as the result of a conference in Geneva in He has been guided by no good intenmake use of the straw that had been fingers almost severed, ready to drop, 1863, and is now recognized by all tions. Capitulation would have been spread thickly upon the floor at one 1863, and is now recognized by all tions. Capitulation would have been civilized nations. All ships, hospitals, his great virtue. He was looked for far been able to attend to all the cases were the fractures; the poor arms and doctors, nurses and other employees as the peacemaker of all time. The with reasonable promptness; he had legs, red and swollen, throbbed intolerof the society are considered neutral world looked with friendly eyes toward requested Mme. Delaherche to furnish ably and were heavy as lead. But the parties, and receive the protection of him a few days ago. There was no him with another table, with mattress most dangerous hurts were close to the parties, and receive the protection of him a few days ago. There was no the opposing armies. While there is the opposing armies. While there is vast issue of empire, which assailed he had established his operating room. a supervising central committee at his honor. His cause was the cause Geneva, each country has its own of the barbarian. And if the world The assistant would thrust a napkin drawn into great hard lumps beneath organization. In the English society can expect so little from the states-ian societies are of course, ities if the hordes of the Orient should ion with those in Britain. there was a branch under the esidency of Mrs. H. A. Boomer, whi did good work during the Boer It is now resuscitated, and will at once commence its labors with the nearty support of all our Another society that is capable of doing good work is the Soldiers' the cork. Wives' League. Its special service is to look after the interests of the families of those who are engaged in the war. The demand for aid will not be passes there will be distress among the soldiers' families that will call for relief. In every municipality from which men have enlisted there should be a branch of this society: for there will doubtless be urgent need for its services. The local branch, under the presidency of Mrs. (Cob) W. E. Hodgins, is already in good shape for its work.

All these schemes are deserving of the hearty co-operation of all our a drawing-room officer, but an engineer to do as she liked with a small state tion of each to do the best it can. While there may be a few who will society, the majority will doubtless be found in the ranks of all of them. The women will do the active work, and the men will answer promptly when the women ask for the money.

TOLSTOI'S PROPHECY.

TOLSTOL the great Russian novelist, I and reformer, a short time before his death predicted the present struggle in Europa. He declared:

"The great conflagration will start about 1912, set by the torch of the first arm in the countries of southeastern Europe. It will develop into a destruction and calamity in 1913. In that year I see all Europe in flames and bleeding. near the lamentation of huge bat-about the year 1915 a figure from the north-a apoleon-enters the stage of oody drama. He is a man ttle militaristic training, a or a journalist, but in his ost of Europe will remain un ill the great leader be? From on will he come?

arring the appearance of a s to the new Napoleon, sight, but a great demay bring him to the some day sue for supremacy?

Will Germany be able to import stick in the bottle, the tighter becomes

Kaisers Wilhelm and Franz Joseph might adopt the Jolly Roger as a com-

Let's hope that in this war, "I reall. If they did, there would be a Somehow that "mailed fist" doesn't seem so smashing since Belgium countered on the Kaiser's midriff, who puts commissariat first.

While we await news of a British victory, let us revamp an old saying, While there's ignorance there's hope.'

forces would total about two millions! have a great war on hand, who is that if she hadn't been through the wars in the offing but old Admiral Hay

What about foreign missions in these happy days? The cannon speaks louder

The German spy in Canada at the present moment seems to be almost as query, "How are you?" Nobody gives plentiful as the Northern Spy will bo a hang what the answer is.

An exchange says the pay of the Russian soldier is $3.78 per year. Perhaps this accounts for the slow mobilization. The fish that big I've hooked, alas!

They may be holding out for $4. If Germany invades Holland, German I've never caught a seven-pound trout roops may garrison the peace palace at The Hague. That's the kind of grotesque infamy that would appeal to the "War-

The German crown prince has been wounded in the foot, says a report. However, it is quite likely he will be able to tango long before the Germans enter

In the last Franco-German war it book showing a balance of $829. The was over two weeks, after the openo note that Tolstoi ing of hostilities, before an engagement depend on a took place. This time only two days elapsed before the bloody clash at > the business of England and ace to clip, if possible, the Gereagle's wings, but not to cripple in the end." stroy the mid-European Empires. are good buffers against Russia. commented his have carried her across." he German and British peoples be friends, on many grounds.

were reduced at St. Petersburg have discovered that the hated fly will about the haunts of the hated fly will Japanese war, at London, by the put a stop to the propagation. The s in South Africa. The Boer war | fly, however, may be depended on to

ADMIRALTY

WE HAVE fed our sea for a thousand years And she calls us, still unfed, Though there's never a wave of all her waves But marks our British dead. We have strewed our best to the weeds unrest To the shark and sheering gull; If blood be the price of Admiralty-

There's never a flood goes shoreward now But lifts a keel we man; There's never an ebb goes seaward But drops our dead on the sand; But slinks our dead on the sand forlore, From the juices to the swim; If blood be the price of Admiralty-Lord God! we ha' paid it in.

Lord God! we ha' paid in full.

We must feed our seas for a thousand years; For that is our doom and pride; As it was when they sailed the Golden-Hind Or the wreck that struck last tide; Or the wreck that lies on the spouting reef. Where the ghostly blue lights flare. If blood be the price of Admiralty-Lord God! we ha' bought it fair.

HOW MEN ARE MUTILATED FOR THE GLORY OF KINGS

lions? Has he been insulted, nationally? modern warfare is reprinted from Emile closely that they were in contact. Al-Is there anything beyond a national Zola's great work on the Franco-Prus- ready there were more than two hunwas struck in the last great European windows the pitiless white daylight Is there anything that will hold back conflict, the Franco-Prussian war of streamed in upon the aggregation of Zola has been called the suffering humanity. The Emperor of Germany has defiled greatest descriptive writer on war sub- Now and then an unguarded movejects that ever lived. Will these scenes ment elicited an involuntary cry of the earth. He has stood forward be redoubled a hundred times in the anguish.

It was a sight to move the most cal- damp air. ous to behold the unloading of those poor wretches, some with a greenish the world through the mire to achieve pallor on their face, others suffused every good thing that the centuries of gestion; many were in a state of coma, others uttering piercing cries of anguish; some there were who, in their vidual triumphs of brotherhood and with a look of deepest terror in their eyes, while a few, the minute a hand numbers that soon every bed in the tion. In the English society can expect so little from the states-patient's nostrils, the keen knife flash-fect of certain wounds the patient and writhed like there work, one for nursing, and his mask to reveal the greatest criming of the saw, barely audible, the blood an epileptic. spurted in short, sharp jets that were

Mars and Old Sol are both batting they ionowed one another in succession that there was barely time through which the red tide of life estrance alone, but by Great Gritain also. to pass a sponge over the protecting caped in torrents and the internal hem-

The longer the Kaiser's battleships of the dead, which were removed from the beds without a moment's delay in rder to make room for the living, and hard treatment; a broken jaw,

In the vast drying-room, the wide neath. door of which was standing open, not was no more room upon the litter that were already as dead men, sunk in the gret to report, etc," will always come had been shaken down on the floor at lethargy of coma, while the fractures the end of the apartment.

Few men can realize the import of it straw in the spaces between the beds, called for water to quench their thirst.

come. Liege begins it. tinues to assume that a great power When the Armies of Earth are dis Kitchener is well named. He is not like Austria had a sort of divine right like Servia. It's the same way with When the musket forever is silenced, himself and Belgium. The only argument is to cut his mailed fist off.

Behold how the religions line up in the Twentieth century. Protestant Eng-If populous Belgium and Holland had land, Catholic Belgium, Atheist France, armies on the Balkan scale, their war and Orthodox Russia vs. Lutheran Ger-Just as if it wasn't bad enough to have been also Mohammedan Turkey, overmuch already. Religion is a cipher

QUESTIONABLE.

[Cleveland Plain Deader.] George Brandis says the common "What do you think of question. America?" betrays keen anxiety on the part of the questioner. It does nothing of the sort. It's like that other

FISHING AND LIFE. [Detroit Free Press.] 've never caught a four-pound bass,

I'm very frank to say; Have always got away. And had him stuffed and draped;

I've hooked full many a one, no doubt, But always he's escaped. In life I've plodded on; I've hooked up many splendid schemes.

But never landed one. BEGGARY

Pittsburg Dispatch.1 A woman arrested for begging in New York had $90 in cash and a bank moderation of her cash resources is taken to imply that she had started in as a novice in the business.

SIR WALTER RALEIGH. [Pittsburg Post.] "I spread my cloak to keep her feet from the wet," complained Sir Walter. "Yet lost out with Queen Elizabeth "You don't understand girls, Walt commented his friend. "You should [Washington Herald.] Agricultural department officials have discovered that borax sprinkled sian war, "The Downfall." Forty-four dred patients there and more were aryears ago this month the first blow riving constantly; through the lofty

-R. KIPLING.

The death-rattle rose on the warm, a lullaby, went on and ceased not. And all about was silence, intense. profound, the stolid resignation of despair, the solemn stillness of the deathchamber, broken only by the tread and whispers of the attendants.

Rents in tattered, shell-torn uniforms lisclosed gaping wounds, some of which had received a hasty dressing on the battlefields, while others were still raw and bleeding. There were feet, still in cased in their coarse shoes, crushed into a mass like jelly; from knees and elbows, that were as if they had been smashed with a hammer, depended inert retained only by a strip of skin.

Here and there were cases where the As soon as one subject had been oper- lungs had been penetrated, the puncated on another was brought in and ture now so minute as to permit no esthey followed one another in such quick cape of blood, again a wide, deep orifice orrhages, those that were hid from sight At the extremity of the grass plot, were the most terrible in their effects, screened from sight by a clump of lilae prostrating their victims like a flash bushes, they had set up a kind of making him black in the face and delir-

And finally the head more than other portions of the frame, gave evidence of expected war to be. But they have the this receptacle also served to receive mouth a pulp of teeth and bleeding they are aiding the Empire just as much the amputated legs and arms of the tongue, an eye torn from its socket and exposed upon the cheek, a cloven skull Europe. that showed the palpitating brain be-

Those in whose case the bullet had only was every bed occupied, but there touched the brain or spinal marrow and other less serious cases tossed rest-They were commencing to strew lessly on their pallets and beseechingly killed much of barrack-room Kipling- encourage the immigration of some ism. Berlin's turn for sobering off has tribe of insects that eat three square meals of borax every day.

THEN-A.D. 2000. [A Poem of Prediction.] handed.

And their trappings are coated with And the cannon is cankered with rust;

When the sword and the helmet lie tar-'Mid the rubbish of Pomp and Dis-

We shall 'wake to the glorious dawning, Of the promised Millennial Day.

And that day shall bring joy to the Nations: And the glow of its generous light. Shall invade the morasses of darkness, And dispel the miasmas of night. Empire-of-Right shall be founded. And the sway of its sceptre increase. Till Mankind shall stand shoulder to shoulder In the ranks, not of War, but of Peace. And the throne of Oppression shall

And the heart of the Tyrant shall quake And the Haughty shall learn to humble And the Mighty their mockings forsake. And the Spirit-of-Truth shall reign o'er

And Humanity's banner float free, Till Immanuel's message be wafted. To the uttermost isles of the sea. -Milo Deyo.

AN INSULT. [St. Thomas Journal.] An attempt having been made to pick the pocket of a Hamilton policeman, the impression gains ground that the cops of the Ambitious City must look like "fixtures."

> SUCCESSFUL STUDENT. [Punch.]

Examining Admiral (to naval candidate)-Now name three great admirals. Candidate-Drake, Nelson, and-I beg your pardon, sir, I didn't quite catch your name.

THE ADVANCE FALL STYLE. [Critic.] You've a very narrow skirt, Little Girl.

Are you sure it doesn't hurt, Little Girl That's the mincing little stride. Where the street is wild and wide, Are you sure there's room inside, Little Girl? Let the bottom down a bit.

Little Girl. It is much too tight a fit, Little Girl. You would better take a sack, So if anything should crack, It would serve you coming back, Little Girl.

--- and the Worst Is Yet to Come

PRESS COMMENT ON THE WAR

WILL NOT FAIL. [Kingston Standard.] this day will do his duty." Canada will

> MUST BE SERIOUS. [Sydney Post.]

The situation in Europe must indeed be serious. People are now actually reading the war news before consulting the major league standing. WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN.

Australia has already offered to plare er warships under the control of the British Admiralty. And Canada will promptly do the same when like Australia, she has a navy of her own.

(Brantford Courier.)

MAN'S AWFUL FATE. (Buffalo Courier.) Discussing feminism, Col. Watterson predicts that ultimately the world will be shaken by a sex war. That is some time too horrible to contemplate-and what would be the fate of unhappy man in the event of his defeat!

[London Daily Mail.] For this reason it is necessary to make it clear that any attempt against the entente will be met with absolute and

UNEXCITING, BUT NECESSARY. [Montreal Mail.]

Some of our soldier lads may find that entry go is not as exciting as they onsolation that by doing their duty as if they were in the firing line in

> BRITAIN'S ATTITUDE. [Pall Mall Gazette.]

We seek nothing; we have nothing to gain by war. But we have vital inerests in the North Sea and elsewhere which demand that France shall not be crushed by superior weight. We must stand by her side, at the call of duty and of honor, though the actual quarrel

TREATMENT OF ALIENS. [Montreal Gazette.]

Germans in Russia and Russians in ermany are in some instances being subjected to insult and ill-treatment. Such occurrences are the rule in the flush of war excitement almost everywhere. Common sense soon pre-

ENGLAND AND THE SEA. [Los Angeles Times.] Britain is smiling. Down inside of im every Britisher is singing, "Rule Britannia Rules the Waves.' ting its foot into the sea. England knows There will be a noise like the crack of

A "FLYING DUTCHMAN." (Hamilton Spectator.)

It will be interesting to note where hat much harassed German liner, the Kronprinzessin Cecilie, will be located omorrow. First announced as intercepted by the English, anon stated as. safe in Bremen; again said to have reached Bar Harbor, Maine and finally reported to be tied up in Falmouth, England, she may win renown n future story as the Flying Dutchman of modern marine lore.

> OUR VOLUNTEERS. [La Presse.]

We hope that the first Canadian contingent will be promptly recruited and then soon leave to defend the cause of it. So far, no anti-toxin has been disthe Empire. While their brothers in covered to contunteract its effect. arms shall continue to protect Canadian territory against possible attacks by the enemy, the brave volunteers who will go to fight in the ranks of the country and to their mother country.

THE PRICE OF FOODS.

[Le Devoir.] check the appears of the public is wise the detriment of the public, is wise. and we hope that the ministers will take means to render it effective. In time of war we may very well, even with advantage to the future, deprive ourselves of luxuries in food. Government, if necesary, prohibit the export of certain products to other countries than to England and France.

THE GERMAN "MADMAN." [From the Toronto Telegram.]
The war is not of the choosing of the German peasant or the German artisan. Their zeal is for peace. The war is the work of the Kaiser himself and the arrogant bureaucrats who surround him. All the paper treaties in the world cannot induce Italy to take sides with a madman. It is as a mad-The man who alone is responsible for the imminent deluge of human blood is as little entitled to mercy as the England expects that every man dog which runs amuck in a city's crowded streets.

RULE OF BLOOD AND IRON. [Peterboro Examiner.]

The news that the Crown Prince of Jermany will himself head a large force making for the French frontier, recalls the fact that he possesses more than his share of the Hohenzollern obsession that men are but food for cannon, and principalities and powers but the divine instruments of a rule of blood and iron. almost every public utterance that the Crown Prince has made has been a glorification of human slaughter. His ook "Germany in Arms," published in May of 1913, was a violent championship of Chauvinism calculated to make the dove of peace faint in the skies over The Hague.

MAY SHORTEN WAR.

(Erie Dispatch.) The entrance of England into the European fracas means that there will be some sea engagements, unless Germany is prudent enough to avoid one. But in either event the large navy of England ought to assure the resumption of trade relations between this country and England and France That ough decided firmness not by Russia and the shortening of the war. The inten-She stands true to her friends, resolved so also will the cost. It is not likely to uphold the cause of justice and peace. that under the circumstances the fight ing can last as long as it would have Germany had been able to keep

England neutral. THE HAPPY MAN.

[Toronto World.] He is a happy man today who is too ousy to think about the war. Those who have time to meditate on the situation have room for anxiety. They are facing new conditions and new possibilities. Noboby knows what an aeroplane or a dirigible may do in actual warfare. It is wiser not to worry about the possibilities, but to wait till the news transpires which will set us all at rest. The door of the dark room will open and we will be told that the German fleet has been wiped out of existence. No citizen of the Empire can bear to contemplate any other alterna-

> SHOULD BE PREPARED. [Montreal Herald.]

We must prepare ourselves for the news of terrible losses sustained by the British forces. From the very magnitude of the combat it cannot be othervails, however, and the resident whose wise. But of the ultimate defeat of country is an enemy is able to go about Germany there can be little doubt. freely and safely as long as he behaves Drunk with the realization of the grandeur of her own war machine, she has thrown down the gauntlet to all the world. Blind, apparently, to the preparedness and resources of other nations, she has launched out on a war of conquest far vaster than Caesar, Alexander the Great or Napoleon ever dreamed of. The end is inevitable. Not who is ready for the sea and who is if she could stand up against her foes not. She has been unhappy about Ger- for ever could Germany bring all the many's idea of a fleet for a long time. great and proud peoples she has challenged to their knees. But she cannot stand up against them. The end for her will be infinitely worse than the beginning. Germany might successfully fight one nation. She cannot fight all the world with any hope of win

PERHAPS.

[Ottawa Citizen.] The Germans have invaded Limburg. in Holland. Probably the name at tracted them.

LOVE A DISEASE.

[Calgary News.] An Italian doctor claims that love is merely a disease. If so, it is different from the general run of diseases, as there are very few who are afraid of

WONDERS AT HOME [New York Globe.] Angus McTavish was a lowlander, army of the Empire will, doubtless, do rich and thoroughly Scotch. He had honor to their reputation, to their never seen the highlands or the beautiful lakes of Scotland except from a long distance. He paid a visit to America, and in

New York was shown all the sights. The decision of the Government to However, he was not impressed and The decision of the speculators, check the appetite of the speculators, still thought the lowlands of Scotland show Angus something that would By day .. water die Att hatte Chee

Chapman's

Wednesday Half-day

Specials

This list of Wednesday morning specials is a crowd bringer—every item is a bargain offered specially for the half-day Wednesday of this week. Sale from 8:30 to 12 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Girls' Washable Dresses One dozen Girls' Sample Wash Dresses, in ginghams, ducks, linenes, made in one-piece Balkan styles, trimmed in different ways. Blues, pinks, tans, etc. Worth $1 to $1.50. Sizes 8 to 12 years. Think of getting these big sizes at Wednesday morning's low price, choice, 69c

Ready-made Sheets

Wednesday morning only we will have on sale Ready-Made Sheets, made of good quality cotton, hemmed, ready for use. Size 70x90 inches, at, per pair ..... $1.58 Men's Bathing Suits Reduced

Navy Blue Bathing Suits for men, one-piece style, with skirt. Were 50c. Reduced to ......39¢ Also Men's Navy Blue Balbriggan Bathing Suits same style. 75c, reduced to ..... 59¢

SILK EMBROFDERED COLLARS, beautiful tinsel and silk embroidery on white voile. Colors are sky, copen, green, pink and mahogany. Popular shape. Regular 50c values. Wednesday morning ...... 25¢ DAINTY CHIFFON MOTOR HOODS, shirred hood, with long scarf ends, in pink, cream, white, sky, tuscan and green. These beautiful hoods may be used for evening wear, as well as motoring. Worth $2.00 and $2.50. Wednesday morning, each ..... $1.00

Cushion Tops, Centres, Etc.

Here is a bargain for women who want to start Christmas fancy work now. 10 dozen Tinted and Picture Cushion Tops of linen crash, also bleached linen centres, doilies, etc. Stamped ready to work, 20c and 25c values. Each

...... 15¢

Victoria Lawn

38-Inch Victoria Lawn. five pieces only will be sold Wednesday morning at 81/2¢ per yard, or 12 yards for ..... $1.00

Wash Goods

Plain Colored Repp, in wanted shades, such as sky, cadet, mauve, rose, tan, champagne, gray and black. Was 20c, now, per yard ..... 121/2¢

A Bargain in White Skirts

Think of $1.59 for one of these charming Long Tunic Repp Skirts! Made in the newest style of fine washable white repp. All sizes. Wednesday morning only at this

MEN'S BALBRIGGAN UNDERWEAR, all sizes, 36 to 44, in both undershirts and drawers, good quality, natural color balbriggan. Wednesday morning only at 33¢ per WOMEN'S BLACK COTTON HOSE, the best 15c quality.

PATTERNED TABLE CLOTHS, warranted pure linen, bright satin finish, assorted patterns. Sizes 71x88 inches

Regular $2.00. Wednesday morning, each ..... $1.79 CHAPMANS

239, 241, 243 Dundas street

it were difficult to find a safe and reliable remedy for the ailments due to irregular or defective action of the stomach, liver or bowels. These ailments are likely to attack anyone; likely, too, to lead to worse sickness if not relieved.

are famous the world over, for their power to correct these troubles certainly and safely. They cleanse the system, purify the blood and act as a general tonic upon body, brain and nerves. Indigestion, biliousness, constipation might, indeed, cause you prolonged suffering and expose you to danger if Beecham's Pills experience-I'd put half in a savings bank."

Carnegie said: -"If I were reduced to poverty to-morrow and given ten dollars to start all over again-in the light of my life

> You can start an account with us by depositing one dollar. Week by week you will find your balance grow. We add 31/2% compound interest to your money at stated periods. Step in this week and make a beginning.

The Ontario Loan & Debenture Co.

A. M. SMART, Manager Cor. Dundas Street and Market Lane, London, Canada

ye ken the auld peacock in Dumfries that had the wooden leg?"

AFTER THE RECONCILIATION. [Modern Society.] Sol-Vell, then, I wish you the same as you vished me. Ikey-There you are, Sol. Begin-

NOT OUTGROWN. [Omaha Bee.] In his time, Swift referred to ning it all over again.

Niagara Falls. Angus looked at them to play," and we have plainly not yet ritically, and, when asked if he did outgrown the war game for which the not think them the most marvelous great nations of the earth have been thing he had even seen, he remarked:
"Aye, men, they are grand! But do HARD TO WIGGLE OUT.

> [Kansas City Journal.] "I see a certain handcuff king wants a divorce." "Found one set of bonds strong enough to hold him, eh?"

HOW IT WORKED. [Philadelphia Ledger.] "I hear Behinks was cured of his asomnia by suggestion?"

"Yes, his wife suggested that he