Rubber Stocks Subjected to Selling Pressure as Prices Reduced.

Associated Press Despatch.
New York, May 13—Wall Street, 1:30 p.m.—The early afternoon dealings consisted of a variety of special movements either way, which bewildered the trading element before the movement became uniformly downward. Coppers sugars and American Woolen were depressed, while the local tractions, tobaccos, Famous Players and Woolworth moved up sharply. Cuts in raw sugar quotations which broke South
Porto Rican Sugar 4 points, finally determined the downward swing.

Associated Press Despatch.
New York, May 13.—Wall Street—
Noon—Reconsideration of the French election upset, with indications that no serious change in policy would result influenced trading sentiment favorably. Wall street also was encouraged by statements from leaders in the automobile industry that the trend of prices through the summer probably would be Ches and Ohio mobile industry that the trend of prices through the summer probably would be upward, although motor shares made no immediate response. Stewart Warner, however, rebounded briskly, following denial by the company's president of reports of curtailed production and contemplated omission of dividends. Further recovery of steel and oil shares was traced to short covering, while 'numerous specialties extended their early gains. Rubber stocks, however, were subjected to selling pressure on the announcement of tire price cuts by Firestone. Call money opened at 3½ per cent.

A MODERATE RECESSION.

Forecasting bureaus as the year's trade develops are modifying their earlier predictions of a down-turn in prices in the second half of 1924. Brookmire this week says that the recession will be one of volume rather than price although this does not mean that there will be no easing of the prices, but only that it will be mild in character and only small in extent.

New York, May 12.—An easier tone prevailed in the local raw sugar market today, and prices declined 1/8c to the basis of 5.78c for Cubans, duty paid. There were sales of 10,000 bags of Cuban, last half May shipment, and 15,000 bags of Porto Rican, May shipment, to local refiners.

The issuance of 20 May notices and an increase of 173,000 tons in one of the leading crop expert's estimates for the Cuban crop to 3,925,000 tons were responsible for renewed selling pressure in raw sugar futures. Stop-loss orders were encountered on the break, and final prices were about the lowest and from 8 to 17 points below Saturday's final.
