

Fighting Senators Bring Washington First American Flag In Forty Years

Victory Over Boston Sox Gives Washington Club Only Pennant In History

Rise of Team Under Stanley Harris, in Majors Only Five Years, and Manager For First Time, One of Game's Brightest Achievements.

MEET GIANTS FOR WORLD'S TITLE

Associated Press Despatch.
New York, Sept. 29.—Washington today clinched the first pennant it has won since breaking into big league baseball, exactly forty years ago, and the flag bearer of the American League will fight it out with the New York Giants, four-time National League champions, in the world's series, starting next Saturday at the capital city.

By defeating the Boston Red Sox this afternoon the Senators brought to a climax one of the most spectacular diamond campaigns in the history of baseball, and accomplished the downfall of the New York Yankees, once proud world's champions, who tonight repose irrevocably in second place, two and a half games behind the leaders.

Stanley Harris, a major league only five years and experiencing his first managerial test, in one of the most dramatic achievements in baseball annals. This fighting youngster will meet one of the greatest pitchers of all time when he takes the field against John McGraw, gray-haired "master mind" of the Yankees.

Sharing the glory of Washington's triumph with Harris are Walter Johnson, one of the greatest pitchers of all time, and Clark Griffith, now president and former manager of the club. In his eighteenth season Johnson has been the mainstay of the team's twirling corps, and will realize a lifelong ambition to pitch in a world's series.

On the Side Lines

With C. S. G.
SENTIMENT.
No matter how good a job is done at making Queen's park oval into an up-to-date athletic plant, it is not and never will be the ideal spot for the high school sports. Baseball has been played in Tecumseh park since London was founded, and long before there was any thought of its being a city. There was everything there at hand for a vast athletic plant that would make use of the river as well.

The only way to make such a plant a success would have been to have one single organization behind everything, professional baseball as well as hockey.

It was a natural site for an arena as the first unit in the big plant. But the arena, through circumstances of the time, is irrevocably lost to Tecumseh park. With no possibilities of such a foundation as the arena would have, there is nothing much that can be done with the park but to cut it up into building lots. Baseball and odd games do not begin to pay the upkeep. It was a case for civic vision several years ago. Now Tecumseh park looks like a fit subject for the auctioneer's hammer.

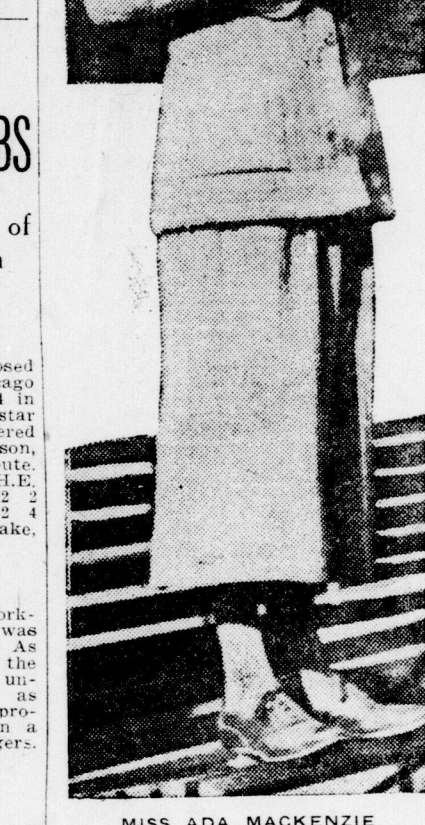

FEW GASPS LEFT.
The M-O has still a few gasps left. Buzz Wetzel is still working for Billy Carroll, with whom he has a two-year contract with one more season to run. Buzz has already signed up some new material around Ohio and Carroll is going to stick with baseball until he gets some of his money back.

THE U. S. LURE.
Two of the Olympic team members whom Hamilton collegiate contributed to the Olympic team are going across the border to continue their education. Princeton gets Barnes, and it is believed Pickard will go to Pennsylvania.

In basketball the president of the Athletic society defeated the secretaries in a well fought battle by a score of 28 to 24.

MUSKALUNGE FISHING AT FRENCH RIVER CAMP.
In the fall when the luncheon becomes voracious and the life of a young fish is worth practically nothing, the fisherman comes into his own. Fighting to the last gasp, the luncheon is the one fish that one prays will rise to the plug or minnow and when he does—well, try and wain. A hot shore dinner in the heart of the luncheon territory, French River, a rest, and then a recounting of the day's sport around the open fire, is something one never forgets.

The Perfections won the championship of the McClary Baseball League on Saturday at Thames Park, when they defeated the Magnets 8 to 6 in a ten-inning battle. The game was featured by tight pitching. McVicar having 15 strikeouts, and Hogg 12.

Haynes States French Horse Not Bumped by Wise Counsellor.

Associated Press Despatch.
New York, Sept. 29.—The defeat of Epinard in the international special at Aqueduct Saturday is generally attributed today to the poor judgment of Jockey Haynes, who rode the French horse. By way of Cincinnati, represented by the Reds in the National League, comes an inside tip from wise men that "Frisch" Meusel, "Bill" Terry and "Roney" Ryan will not wear Giant uniforms next year; that Manager John McGraw will trade them to the Cincinnati club for the famous Eddie Roush, star center fielder and heavy hitter who will trade them to the Cincinnati club for the highest salary ever received by a player.

Several unsuccessful attempts to buy the release of Roush were said to have been made, but McGraw has refused to let him go. McGraw has reported to have turned down a cash offer of $150,000 to let McGraw's players go. McGraw, a landed estate owner, has been employed by the hydro in the city since May, but was recently laid off. McGraw is now being made to find him another position in the city.
