Montreal. Nov. 20.—A fair amount of business was transacted today in the local grain market. Montreal exporters receiving a number of cables bidding for Manitoba wheat for prompt and nearby shipment. There was also some demand for oats at advanced prices, and sales of a few loads were made. The demand for wheat now on spot here showed some improvement.

A moderate amount of business was done in cash coarse grains in the domestic market, and prices generally were firmly maintained.

This has been the burial place of the royal family for the past 150 years, the only exception being Queen Victoria, who rests beside the Prince consort in Frogmore Mausoleum. King George may decide to omit the lying-in-state. It is believed that in a general way the London cere-monial of the funeral of King Edward will be followed, but without military accompaniments. The date will probably be about a fortnight hence, depending on the convenience of the mourners from Danish and other foreign courts.

All the foreign ambassadors and ministers were notified immediately of the death of Alexandra, and they sent messages of condolence to Austen Chamberlain, the foreign secretary as the kin, the foreign secretary, as the king's representa-tive. The queen of Spain cancelled her arrangements for a visit to the Drury Lane theatre tomorrow. The postponement of the Guildhall luncheon in honor of the Prince of Wales came very suddenly when it was learned that Alexandra was at the verge of death and that the prince was desirous of being at the bed-side. Hundreds of guests had already arrived at the Guildhall, unaware of the postponement, as there was no time to make it known to all those invited.

Pageant Is Dispersed. Thousands of persons had already gathered along the route of the procession, and as the word was passed that the pageant was not to be held they dispersed.

The prince was greatly concerned at being compelled to make such a sudden change in the plans. He wrote personal letter to the lord mayo expressing regret and sorrow at having put all to such personal inconvenience and expense would understand how unsuit would be to carry out the program.
