LONDON CHILDREN HOLD HIGH REVEL AT RED BIRD PICNIC

St. James' Sunday School and Granton Masons Frolic At Springbank.

CONTESTS VARIED

George A. Wenige's sixth annual "Red Bird" picnic, at Springbank yesterday afternoon, was a huge success. With approximately 2,000 present, out of which number more than 1,200 rode to the picnic spot on bicycles of all sorts and conditions, ideal weather, oodles of soft drinks, hot dogs and cones, and a full program of sports, there was no one who dared say that the outing was not one of the best of the season.

Mr. Wenige, in his shirt sleeves and perspiring profusely, acted as master of ceremonies and kept everyone in good humor, although at times he was hard put to smile himself. Mrs. Wenige, assisted by six other women, worked hard in the large refreshment tent, where the supper was being prepared and hundreds of rolls and sandwiches were put together in anticipation of the juvenile appetites.

The contests carried out were novel in the extreme, all being in some way connected with riding a bicycle. The trick riding, in which only three contestants were entered, drew much applause and the winner, W. Haslett, gave a finished performance.

The $50 Red Bird bicycle was won by Lorne Marshall, 8 years old, who held the lucky number. He is a son of Frank Marshall, 21 Clarence street, and attends Simcoe Street School.

Mr. Wenige expressed himself as more than pleased with the success of the day at the looking at the happy though dusty faces crowding around the tent at tea time, felt amply repaid for the trouble taken to give the boys and girls of the city a treat.

The prize-list is as follows: Riding the plank, boys and girls, John Tamlyn, Jack Rowlings, W. Edwards; slow race, girls under 12, T. Topping, J. GRANTON MASONS.
Members of Granton Lodge 483, A. F. and A. M., and their friends, with the number 300 held a jolly outing at Springbank Park yesterday afternoon. A full program of races was run off and a ball game played between two ladies' teams. The weather, which was ideal for picnics, was also the reason for many of the picnickers driving out in motors, which made a wall around the spot chosen by the Masons. The results of the races were:

Children 6 and under—Bob Barthel, Rita Clatworthy, Margery Knox, C. Mills; boys 6 to 10—Reg Mills, Ken Barthel, Arni Sherville; girls 6 to 10—Hannabel Ditchfield, Betty Hunter, Dorothy Wallace; boys 10 to 15—Ken Barthel, Clark Sherville; girls 10 to 15—H. In the baseball the married ladies defeated those enjoying similar pleasures for public entertainment, blessedness by a score of 16-11. The winning battery was Mrs. Powers and Mrs. McLymont.

TWO UNIONS ASK THAT OFFICIALS QUIT LABOR POSTS

Stove Mounters and Carpenters Threaten Seccession If Demand Ignored.

YOUNG GIVES STAND

The usually decorous and seemingly order of the Trades and Labor Council was slightly disturbed last night during a conflict of opinions that arose when the delegates representing the local stove mounters and the carpenters and joiners requested the resignation of Secretary F. D. Burke and Treasurer Fred Young on the ground that they had by their conduct during the late election rendered themselves undesirable as officers of organized labor.

The letters of the two locals also stated that the event of these officers not being asked by the council to resign they would themselves resign from membership in the Trades and Labor Council. It was this last statement that aroused the ire of President John McGuire who read in a threat against the authority of the council. He insisted all through the debate that the protesting locals put their charges against the officers in writing, as ordered in the constitution of the council, and that they lay them before the grievance committee in the usual way.

Delegates Ingles made a motion that those letters be filed, which drew the fire of the two locals on himself, and they offered to withdraw if the communications were merely filed, stating that this was simply sidestepping the question. Fred Young, rising intermittently throughout the debate, was heard to declare, "All this is simply Bolshevism, pure and simple. They come here and ask for our resignations without making any definite charges and without giving us any chance to prove our innocence. There are only two forces in this world, what's British and what's Bolshevism. If it isn't one then it is the other." Delegate Rud Hessel took exception to this on the ground that any member had the right to express his opinions and that the charge of Bolshevism was unjust and uncalled for, which seemed to coincide with the ideas of the majority of the delegates.

Asks Charges in Writing.
Delegate Ingles repeated his former motion and, with an amendment by Delegate Thompson, it was carried unanimously and read as follows: "That the charges made against the stove mounters and the carpenters and joiners be formulated in writing and that they be laid before the grievance committee to take the necessary action in accordance with the constitution of the council." The committee which will deal with this charge will consist of George MacLachlan, A. D. Dempsey, J. Maudeley, B. Woodley, G. Brewer and Harry Lidgatt.

President McGuire crossed swords several times with the delegates of the locals on questions of procedure. He made it quite plain that the threat of resignation contained in the letters was distasteful to the council, and that it was determined not to be persuaded in any of its decisions by such tactics.

Delegate Ballard at the close of the discussion called for unity on the part of members of the council, and stated that it would be in the interest of the labor movement generally if they all agreed not to give any information to the newspapers or to reporters whom they met in the street. His address was listened to in silence, but apparently without any very great response.

Secretary Burke, who was in an aggressive mood, declared, "I stand upon every utterance that I have ever made. I take nothing back, and what is more I challenge any reporter or newspaper to prove that I have at any time given for publication any news that is private to the council."

Another little matter that was not without its gust of steel and hint of cross purposes occurred when William Tite asked that mention of a letter written by Secretary Burke to Tom Moore, which had been received, dealing with the right of officers of the council to state their stand on the platforms of political candidates, be eliminated from the minutes of the last meeting.

The secretary claimed the letter as personal property, and after a lively discussion it was decided to allow the reference to the letter to stand in the minutes, and to make the letter the property of the council.

Authorize Grant.
Delegate Stewart gained the consent of the council to make a grant of $50 to the Workers' Educational Association Branch of the Western University. A letter will be sent out by the council to all the sister organizations asking their help in having the 1924 Dominion Labor convention held in London. It is pointed out that it is more than 30 years since a Dominion Labor convention was held in this city, and the chamber of commerce and the city council have promised to do what they can to further the project. Several pamphlets and booklets, advertising the attractions of London as a location for the center, offered for the use of delegates by the chamber of commerce, were offered for inspection and filed.

A letter was read from Tom Moore of the Dominion Labor Congress in reply to one from the council stating that the C. N. R. will have reduced fares for the convenience of delegates to the Dominion convention to be held this year in Vancouver. The reduced fare will include stop-overs at the various points of interest and business on the line.

A communication from Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, asking for the co-operation of the local council in a sane and dignified celebration of Labor Day, was read and filed. Another letter was read from John M. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, warning the council against the wiles of the "red" element amongst labor. He denounced William Z. Foster and all his followers as "irresponsible zealots," and advised against any connection or sympathy with them.

The Daily Union Record of Seattle, the greatest Labor paper in America, will issue a special number on Labor Day, and asks the members of the council to order copies early.

WOMAN'S HEALTH RESTORED

She Claims Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did It After Everything Else Failed

Milwaukee, Wis.—"I feel that I ought to let you know about my case. I was ailing and could barely do my housework and washing I was so run-down, just from having one child. I took a lot of medicines and had doctors. Then I gave them all up and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I feel wonderful. I do everything that comes along, and we all take your medicine as a tonic when we don't feel just so. I am thankful for what the Vegetable Compound has done for my health and for my family."

Mrs. Mary Sauson, 944 28th St., Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Letters like these testify to the value of the Vegetable Compound. These women speak from the fullness of their hearts. They describe as correctly as they can their conditions: First, those symptoms that affected them most conspicuously; and later the disappearance of those symptoms. They are sincere expressions of gratitude. For nearly fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been so praised by women.

A new quick service to St. Thomas

On and after Monday, July 9th, on Station-to-Station calls from London to St. Thomas, you won't have to call Long Distance. Your local operator can connect you.

Simply say to your operator, "St. Thomas 1234" (or whatever the number may be in the directory) and hold the line. In a minute you will have your party on the line, or be told that the line is busy.

If you call from a party line, your operator will ask, "your letter, please." Tell her the letter which follows your number, or your ring number.

This new quick service applies only to a Station-to-Station call—that is, a call from a number in London to a number in St. Thomas.

First consult your directory, give your operator the number, and hold the line.

A five-minute talk costs 15 cents.
