There was a difference of opinion on this important point and the whole matter of the interpretation of the contract was finally left for investigation in the hands of His Worship the Mayor.

Before the council adjourned Ald. Williams inquired of the members of the board who had previously expressed themselves on the subject what they had done in regard to Walkely, King & Casey compelling their employes at the lake to board with them at a cost of $5 per week? Had anything been done?

ALD. McLELLAN and Humphrey responded that no one had yet complained, and until some one did so action was not called for-even if the facts were as Ald. Williams stated them. Ald. Williams appeared to be the only one to complain, as it the engineer had no doubt realized when he ordered the change.

POOR who call call at his office Fridays are ordered the change.

ALD. WILLIAMS said that the change, he was informed, meant about $900 in the pockets of the contractors. By the contract they would have had to complete the earth work on both sides so as to ensure the strength of the dam.

ALD. Bragg did not think that $900 or any other amount had been saved the contractors, as the change meant a considerable addition of labor. Ald. MoLellan
