

LIBERAL FALLACIES FORCIBLY EXPOSED

Conservative Candidates Address Meeting of Electors—Convincing Arguments Advanced by Messrs. Prior and Earle.

The Conservative election of Victoria assembled last night in A. O. U. hall to hear their candidates, Col. Prior and Mr. Earle, discuss the issues of the campaign. Long before the candidates appeared the house was well-filled, and when the chosen of the people entered, they were greeted with hearty cheers and much clapping of hands.

Shortly after the hour set for opening the meeting, Col. Prior mounted the platform and suggested that Mr. D. H. MacDowall, ex-M.P. for Southastown, be asked to take the chair in the absence of Mr. Baker, who had been unavoidably prevented from attending. Mr. MacDowall was voted to the chair and presiding temporarily in that capacity until Mr. Earle had taken the oath of office.

Mr. Earle then quoted Sir Wilfrid Laurier's celebrated utterance on sending the contingents to Africa, and proceeded to denounce the Liberal policy of sending the contingents to Africa, and proceeded to denounce the Liberal policy of sending the contingents to Africa, and proceeded to denounce the Liberal policy of sending the contingents to Africa.

Col. Prior then quoted Laurier, Minto, Cartwright and others on alleged Conservative extravagance, and their promise of retrenchment and economy, if re-elected to power. He scored the Liberals for the scandalous way in which they had broken all precedents in awarding large contracts to local contractors at exorbitant prices.

just on the eve of the election, designed work had been done in Victoria. The Conservatives—the Liberals refused to do anything but to let the Liberals have a disgrace, but no argument was sufficiently strong to induce the Conservatives to do anything but to let the Liberals have a disgrace, but no argument was sufficiently strong to induce the Conservatives to do anything but to let the Liberals have a disgrace.

Conservatives At Nanaimo

Clive Phillips-Wolley aces Rousing Speech to the Electors.

He Tells in No Uncertain Voice What Are His Principles.

Following is the text of the speech Mr. Clive Phillips-Wolley delivered at Nanaimo on Saturday evening, a short account of which appeared in the telegraphic despatches of the day.

Capt. Wolley was received with hearty applause as he came forward to speak. He said: "I feel a little nervous. If you can realize what it is to stand on the brink of a river with bitterly cold water, make up your mind to take a plunge."

I feel a little nervous. If you can realize what it is to stand on the brink of a river with bitterly cold water, make up your mind to take a plunge. I feel a little nervous. If you can realize what it is to stand on the brink of a river with bitterly cold water, make up your mind to take a plunge.
