PAPER WAREHOUSE 30 WEST MARKET STREET, TORONTO.

SPECIAL NOTICE. We beg to notify our patrons, and consumers of paper generally, that a gross FRAUD is now, and has been for some time past, being perpetrated upon them by some manufacturers of brown and rag linings and wrapping papers.

The fraud consists in the manner the paper is put up in. Papers invoiced as reams, which should always contain 480 sheets to the ream, are put up SHORT COUNT and contain usually 400 sheets—some only 320. The short count paper is made thicker than the standard sizes and weights, and is being used against us and to the loss of the consumer, especially when full count was expected as well as full weight.

Parties having such paper in stock, INVOICED TO THEM as REAMS, can demand the shortage in count, notwithstanding they have bought same by weight.
