SIXTEENTH YEAR. M. FAURE SUCCEEDS PERIER.

THE NEW PRESIDENT OF FRANCE ELECTED YESTERDAY.

Socialists Partisan at Members Not Being Liberated. The monarchists also elected. The new President of France, M. Faure, was elected yesterday.

Paris, Jan. 17.—M. Francis Faure, member of the Chamber of Deputies for Seine-et-Oise, was elected President of the French Republic.

The day opened quiet, and nothing in the appearance or demeanor of the people either here or in Versailles indicated that the country was in the midst of an election.

Monarchists and Socialists Attempt to Create Disturbances. Versailles, Jan. 17.—The National Assembly, convened at the palace of Versailles for the purpose of electing a President to succeed M. Casimir-Perier, was called to order by M. Chatelet-Lacour.

Proposed to Re-Establish the Monarchy. The speaker, M. Chatelet-Lacour, announced the resignation of President Casimir-Perier, and read the text of the articles of the constitution.

Nothing noted. Baudry d'Asson produced a volume containing the rules governing the proceedings, and demanded a hearing respecting a breach of the regulations.

At 1:17 p.m. lots were drawn for 30 scrutators to supervise the balloting. The name of M. Mirman, Socialist, was called first.

The Socialists Goaded to Fury. When the name of M. Mirman, Socialist, was called there was no response.

When Baudry d'Asson voted he shouted, "Vive Catholic France, vive le roi." The venerable Pierre Bine, Union Republican, the father of the Chamber of Deputies, rose and declared that he would not vote for the monarchist.

The first ballot was at 3:30, and the result was officially announced as follows: M. Faure, 244; Waldeck-Rousseau, 154.

The second ballot was at 4:30, and the result was officially announced as follows: M. Faure, 244; Waldeck-Rousseau, 154.

UNEMPLOYED IN MONTREAL.

Ten Thousand Unemployed To March To-day—Incited To Use Dynamite—Grave Trouble Feared.

Montreal, Jan. 17.—The labor difficulty is causing the authorities grave uneasiness. The labor leaders threaten that 10,000 workmen will march upon the City Hall to-morrow and demand work and that the demonstration will be repeated until something is done.

The police authorities propose to take precautions and a strong force will be kept at the City Hall to meet any emergency. The Mayor has started a hunt for the ringleaders of the unemployed.
