Sizing Fruit

An apparatus has recently been perfected which does away with the unreliable process of sorting apples by hand.

The machine which accomplishes so accurately and simple this task of sizing involves the use of two queer looking belts which are divided up into many small segments, the segments each having a wide mouth in their centre.

Heliograms on Advertising

No establishing can lit down and wait for business. Life is too short and rents or taxes too high.

Every store must present an argument for business and must spread that argument to a wide field. That's advertising.

People who study over the mail-order catalogue are like moths hanging around the candle flame. They are bound to be singed.

Worms however generated, are found in the digestive tracts, where they set up disturbances detrimental to the health of the child.

All women who have shown bravery under fire are to be awarded a military medal by the British government.

According to the geological survey, Colorado alone has shale enough to yield 20,000,000,000 barrels of crude oil, from which 2,000,000,000 barrels of gasoline can be obtained.

A novel automobile alarm of English invention consists of a gong placed near the cooling fan and struck by its blades as it is drawn against them by a wire from the driver's seat.

To protect baggage as it is unloaded at railroad stations, movable platforms have been designed, made of pieces of old airbrake hose fastened across resilient wooden strips.

Machinery for ships in which a steam turbine and oil engine are coupled to each propeller, permitting either kind of fuel to be used, has been patented by a Swiss inventor.

The recent reference to a department store in Portland, Ore., in which lumber is sold in "short lengths for odd jobs," has been followed by the establishment of similar departments in a dozen big American cities.

Comfort for Dyspeptic.—There is no ailment so harassing and exhausting as dyspepsia, which arises from defective action of the stomach and liver, and the victim of it is to be pitied.

The friend of all Sufferers.—Like to "the shadow of a rock in a weary land" is Dr. Thomas Electric Oil to all those who suffer pain.
