Messrs the Orlando Brothers and Debona have made a good start on road building between Tupperville East Crossing and Annapolis Royal town limits. The distance to be built is 8.9 miles and this week there are about sixty men on the job. This number will in all probability be materially increased and the work carried through with all expedition consistent with good construction.

A considerable stretch of road in the West Paradise district has been gravelled and work is also proceeding briskly on the Granville road.

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Young and Mr. A. F. R. Young were guests of honor at a very pleasant social gathering last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Williams. The occasion was greatly enjoyed by the guests present and dainty refreshments were served during the evening.

Starting in with the afternoon of election day Jupiter Pluvius opened the flood gates up above, and on and on it has been raining ever since. Everything is well saturated, the grass is growing rapidly also the weeds. At time of writing there appears no indication of a change.

The new sign or rather the former one repainted has been placed in position at Carleton Corner. The decoration is a big improvement and gives to the board a real value.

Numbers of electors well advanced in years exercised the franchise on Thursday. Among them was Mrs. Emma Chish, who is in her 93rd year. She voted at Belleisle.

Mr. Arch Veinot of Morse Road captured in a trap on Saturday a large black bear. When brain was despatched he was found to measure seven feet three inches in length. Some bear!

The Junior C. G. I. T. girls went to Hampton on Monday with their leader, Mrs. Harry Hayward and will occupy the Foster cottage for a week.

NEWSY NOTES FROM ANNAPOLIS

Concert in Aid of Foreign Missions—Tennis Dance in Masonic Hall—Social and Personal Items.

An interesting concert was given on Friday evening at the Baptist Church, in aid of Foreign Missions. The children had been trained by Mrs. Gibson, and took their parts with surprising ease and excellence considering the extremely youthful age of some of the performers. Mrs. W. C. MacPherson presided and offered the opening prayer, and several hymns were sung by the choir. The remainder of the programme comprised of songs by Vivian Munroe and Lester Harnish. A beautiful quartette by Mrs. C. Allen and the Misses Evelyn Harnish, Goldie Charlton and Daisy Spurr; a dialogue by Addie and Kenneth Spurr; several clever exercises in which the following pupils took part; Ruth Carr, Averil Coombs, Vivian Munroe, Violet Rawding, Addie Spurr, Elsie Rawding, Muriel Barnjum, Alice Carr, Bertha Barnjum, Ruth Carr, Clifford Beeler, Alan Gibson, Edward Munroe, Donald Willis, Reginald Munroe, and Kenneth Spurr; and charming little recitations by Addie Spurr, Alice Carr, Bertha Barnjum, Marion Harnish, Eleanor Douglas, Ruby Carr, Willetta Taylor, and Ruth Carr. The concert closed with the Doxology, sung by choir and people.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place on Tuesday morning, June 30th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Ellis, Litchfield, Annapolis Co., when their second daughter Clara Colice, became the bride of Lawrence Gordon Munroe, son of Mrs. Sarah (Brown) Munroe and the late Isiah Munroe, Rev. A. Gibson of the Annapolis Royal Baptist Church assisted by Pastor H. S. Harten of Hillsboro, performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of invited guests, and little Ruby Ellis, sister of the bride daintily gowned in rose organdie acted as flower girl. A large collection of useful and beautiful gifts were received, the groom's gift to the bride being a white gold wrist watch. Following the ceremony luncheon was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Munroe left on a motor trip around the South shore, and on their return will reside at Lake Munroe, Annapolis Co.

Mrs. Dolly Brown of Boston, a former well known Annapolis girl, accompanied by her eldest brother, G. Fred Boehner, is making a short visit at the home of Mrs. Norman Roop.

A party of pipers from the 78th Battalion, Pictou, clad in full Highland uniform, visited the town on Wednesday and Thursday, and played the drum and bag-pipes at the Declaration Day gathering in Fort Anne Park. The object of their visit was to solicit contributions for the Stellan- ton Relief Fund.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson and children of Paradise, Annapolis Co., and Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Williams of Bridgetown were among the visitors in town on Declaration Day.

Miss Pauline Harris, B. A. and Miss Winifred Braine, B. A. have returned from their respective schools at North Brookfield and Maitland Square for the summer vacation.

Mr. Joseph Marshall of the Railway Mail Service is spending his vacation at Leguille and Upper Clements.

Mrs. Clifford Duncan returned on Saturday from a pleasant visit at
