NOTES.

THE Editor requests that all communications be addressed to him at 17 Trinity Square, Toronto, Ont.

THE Bishop of Toronto spoke thus kindly in his charge to Synod, which met in Toronto on the 10th of June:—

"THE CANADIAN CHURCH MAGAZINE AND MISSION NEWS continues its career of usefulness as a disseminator of missionary intelligence, under the able management of the General Secretary. Its circulation has reached the large number of 5,000 copies a month. I am sure you will share with me the pleasure with which I welcome the Rev. Dr. Mockridge back to this Diocese and the satisfaction of knowing that Toronto will henceforth be in a large sense the headquarters of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Church."

THE Fourth Annual Report (1890) of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Toronto is a book which indicates a large amount of work. In form and appearance it is like an ordinary Journal of Synod. We notice that the Auxiliary has incorporated Diocesan Missions in its undertakings, so that a large portion of the work described in the report does not touch the duties imposed upon the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society. We notice also that the ladies have altered Woman's to Women's Auxiliary. The title taken by the original society formed in Ottawa was the "Woman's Auxiliary to the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Church of England in Canada." It is called the "Woman's Auxiliary" in the States and has been so designated in all our official dealings with our own Society. We are not prepared to say which is the more correct term, but as it was called the Woman's Auxiliary from the first and corresponds with the sister title in the United States, would it not be better to retain that designation throughout? However, these are but minor points in the face of the excellent and encouraging Report which lies before us. From the address of the President to the minor details of the finances among all the parochial branches, there is evidence of power and zeal among the ladies of Toronto Diocese which gives good promise for the future welfare of the Church.

THE episcopal income of the Diocese of Niagara is only about $2,000 and there is no see house. It is now proposed to make up the capital fund to $75,000, which can be secured by the people of the diocese contributing $15,000, the other $15,000 being promised conditionally by three English societies. Already half the amount required has been subscribed, so that it is probable the diocese will soon be well and properly endowed.
