

ANNALS
OF
ST ANNE DE BEAUPRÉ

EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.—THE DIRECTORS OF LEVIS COLLEGE.

CONTENTS.

Spiritual advantages.—The worship and patronage of St. Anne (continued) ; Saint Anne has merited to become the mother of Mary Immaculate.—Sight restored to a child.—Saint Anne (poetry).—The Acadians at St Anne de Beaupré.—Sainte Anne d'Auray.—The old sexton of St Anne.—Pilgrims and shrines in Canada : St Anne de Beaupré.—Arch-confraternity of St Anne de Beaupré.—Saint Anne d'Auray : a review announced.—A remarkable cure at St Anne de Beaupré.—The first Bishop of Upper Canada.

All correspondence to be directed to Rev. C. E. CARRIER,
Levis College, Levis, P. Q.

SPIRITUAL ADVANTAGES.

1^o Two masses are offered up every week, one on Monday, and the second, on Saturday, for subscribers and their families ; 2^o another mass is said, on the first Friday of every month, for deceased subscribers.

—000—

THE WORSHIP AND PATRONAGE OF SAINT ANNE.

—
(Continued.)

SAINT ANNE HAS MERITED TO BECOME THE MOTHER OF MARY IMMACULATE.

If we read, in the Roman Breviary, the office for the 26th of July, the day on which the Church celebrates feast of Saint Anne, we shall meet with the following prayer :