

cept one, voted for Mr Griffin. The former chairman and two others have resigned. There will be some changes in the offices too. What seems a strange thing to us is that the four who have always been most opposed to our work, have been silenced. Nothing has ever happened to poor Mr A. equal to this, and he feels it keenly. And so many of the native people were against him too! Surely the Lord has brought this about. I believe Mr A. will be converted, and this trouble may be the means used.

We are hoping, that some, who are converted, will come out soon. A quiet work of grace has been going on in the town during the past year, which is very encouraging to us, but of which we cannot write much, at present.

I am sending you this letter to ask you to pray for this town. ; God has heard our prayers, and has done great things, whereof we are glad, and we believe He will do greater things yet. I shall write you when.

Letter from the Treasurer

OF THE W. B. M. U.

Dear Sisters:—

As we are at the close of the second quarter of another year, I feel it my duty to report officially, through our most direct means the little messenger "Tidings". Just on commencing let me say how gratifying it is to receive the kindly expressions regarding the little leaflet, as to its help in the monthly meetings. May it each year grow to be a greater power for good, thus fulfilling the desires of the promoters. I wish it were possible for the sisters to sit with me at my desk this morning, and count up the amounts due in five days to our different missions, and contrast the monies on hand. That bank book (which always tells the truth) says eleven hundred and fifty dollars in favor of Foreign