

of thoughtfulness and loving care on the part of those who prepared them. A very kind letter was found in one bundle. It is indeed encouraging to realize that so many of God's people are continually remembering us. We hope this winter to have our children well clothed, and thus to be able to some extent at any rate to keep off colds and la grippe.

Our school is again filling up. You will remember that thirty-five of our pupils were taken away to Regina. We have now about thirty, and more are expected soon. We are adding a large girls' dormitory, a laundry and bath-room with a cistern, all of which will be finished, we hope, in a few weeks.

For the Little Ones.

FROM MISS SINCLAIR.

INDORE, July 13, 1892.

I feel almost ashamed to write again this year and make special requests, but I very much want some school apparatus that is not to be had in India, so far as I know.

When the next goods are coming will you please send me a couple of boxes of white chalk crayons—the kind ordinarily used at home—and one box of coloured ones. We can only get huge lumps of chalk in the bazaar here, and it is impossible to do nice black-board work with them.

Then I should be very glad if any home teacher, who is interested in our work, could send me some very simple kindergarten apparatus,* such as cubes, sticks, coloured glazed paper for weaving designs, etc. At present we have two wee bairnies in the boarding school, with whom I would like to try kindergarten work. The system has not been introduced except in a very few

*The kindergarten supplies have been provided by Toronto Presbyterial.
