

HOT ROLLS.—Into one pound of flour put two ounces of butter; add the whites of three eggs well beaten and half a pint of hop yeast with a little salt and milk enough to make a stiff dough. Set in a warm place until light; work; make in long rolls; glaze with melted butter and bake in a quick oven.

PREPARED MUSHROOMS.—Put in a saucepan a little stock parsley and half a pound of butter; melt, and lay in sliced mushrooms; remove from the fire and let stand for an hour; at the end of that time set on the fire to brown. Sprinkle in a tablespoonful of flour, mix smooth, and pour in a cup of boiling water; add a glass of Madeira wine and the juice of a lemon; season with salt and pepper

MUSHROOM PATES.—Cut up one quart of mushrooms with one teaspoon of salt, pepper, mace and the juice of a lemon. Put in a saucepan, simmer twenty minutes. Have six sweetbreads parboiled and cut in small pieces; dredge with grated cracker and put in a saucepan; add a glass of wine and a tablespoon of currant jelly, with a bunch of chopped parsley; let boil five minutes. Have baked in small patty-pans nice puff paste, in which drop a spoonful of the mixture. Serve hot.

A BRIDE'S CONFESSION

"Yes, dear, I am married now, and George and I are keeping house in the loveliest flat on 64th St. Well, yes, we did get married somewhat suddenly. My health, you know, had for some time been very delicate, and Dr. Heavy fee told mamma that he feared I would follow poor, dear sister Belle, who died three years ago from a wasting disease. Dear George was almost crazy when mamma told him what the doctor said, and I nearly cried my eyes out, but one day I overheard that 'hateful Nelly Parker' say to her mother, 'I think that George Blauvelt is just too lovely for anything, and when the girl he's engaged to dies, and they say she is dying of a galloping consumption, I'm going to step into her shoes and become Mrs. George Blauvelt.' Now just you wait and see." This spring, both George and I seemed to be almost resigned to the idea that we should never be married, and the thought that the doctor's hussy might get him after all nearly drove me crazy. One day I read the testimony of Howyers Howe and Hummel as to the wonderfully invigorating effect of DR. CAMPBELL'S ARSENIC WAFERS, and I resolved to try what they would do for me. I commenced their use on the 4th of July. George had just sailed for Europe on business for his firm. On Sept. 18 he returned. I was, from the use of the Wafers, by that time again a well woman, and so enraptured was he with my healthy and robust appearance that he insisted we get married the very next day. I could not say him nay, and, as you will see by my card, I am now Mrs. George Blauvelt. Do call soon and let me introduce George to you; I am sure you will like him, he is so handsome, and as good as he is handsome. Good-by; be sure not to forget."
