

CHICAGO MARKET.

OPENINGS WERE STRONG — MARKET WEAK NEARLY ALL DAY — HALF AN HOUR BEFORE CLOSING THERE WAS A RALLY WHEN PRICES ROSE — WAR NEWS SAID TO BE THE CAUSE.

Chicago, Oct. 10.

From Liverpool comes word that the political situation is causing anxiety, wheat is $\frac{1}{2}$ higher, spot dull but futures firm. Corn $\frac{1}{2}$ higher, with steady demand.

Chicago estimated receipts today: Hogs, 25,000; cattle, 14,000. N. W. cars 760, as against 926 last week.

Schwartz, Dupce & Co., were liberal buyers of wheat on the market opening today, and selling had to a considerable extent the character of selling against calls. Openings were strong and were succeeded by sales which had no very decided character. They on receipts of cables that war had been proclaimed might have been expected to show more firmness. The impression is that the bulge of the last bull market has largely discounted the effects of an actual war and that on this account the war influence on grain markets will be but slight and temporary. The market is developing weakness and gives little tendency to trade even among scalpers. The first ten days of October, like so many of the month's openings furnish little stimulus to trade. Rallies about the middle of these months came and probably they will come in the middle of this month, though the immediate cause is not as yet evident.
