

2d. Moved by I. Bedard, Esquire, M. P. seconded by the Venerable Archdeacon Mountain—That this meeting regrets the existence of intemperance in the use of intoxicating liquors in this City and Neighbourhood.

3d. Moved by Mr. Clapham, seconded by Mr. Ferguson—That Intemperance has been diminished in other countries by the establishment of Temperance Societies; and that similar success may reasonably be expected to attend the adoption of similar measures in the City of Quebec.

4th. Moved by Dr. Douglass, seconded by Mr. Sewell—That in order to prepare the public for the formation of a Temperance Society, an Association be now formed—to be called “The Quebec Association for the Diffusion of Information connected with the subject of Intemperance.”

5th. Moved by Mr. Tremain, seconded by Mr. Campbell—That the following Gentlemen be requested to accept the offices respectively annexed to their names, be authorized to forward the ultimate design of the Association, and have the power to add to their numbers:—

President—John Neilson, Esquire, M. P.

Vice-President—Honble. Sir John Caldwell, Bart.

COMMITTEE.

Messrs. Bedard, M. P.

Campbell,

Elgee, Captain, R. A.

Fisher,

Gauthier,

Glackemeyer,

Hale.

Messrs. Hart A. I.

Holcomb, =

Lyons,

Musson,

Phil. Panet,

Romain,

Treasurer—Dr. Douglass,

Secretaries—Mr. W. S. Sewell, Mr. J. H. Kerr.

6th. Moved by Mr. Romain, seconded by Revd. W. Squire—That a Subscription List be now opened, and that all Subscribers of Five Shillings be considered Members of the Association.

The Chairman then resigned the Chair—having previously informed the Meeting that a subscription list was ready to receive the names of subscribers to the Association; and it was resolved unanimously on the motion of Mr. Patton, seconded by Mr. Musson;

7th That the thanks of the meeting are due to John Neilson, Esquire, for his valuable services in the Chair.

The meeting was numerous and respectably attended, and the names of a number of subscribers were obtained before the meeting dispersed.

Note.—The public are requested to observe that the Association which is founded on the foregoing Resolutions, is not itself an Institution similar to those which are known by the denomiua-
