CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY.
The regular quarterly meeting of the St. Vincent de Paul Children's Aid Society was held on Monday evening in St. Vincent's Hall. There was a large attendance. Mr. Matthew O'Connor presided and introduced Ald. Lamb, who addressed the meeting in terms appreciative of the work being done. The later discussion turned into the familiar groove of how the subscriptions to the Society may be collected in the parishes. Finally, it was decided to communicate with all the members who have subscribed at any time since the establishment of the Society, with the view of collecting past dues. Mr. Thomas Long, Mr. J. Miller and Commandr. Law contributed to the discussion. Among the clergy present were Fathers Hand, Rohlleder and Treacy.

CATHOLIC TRUTH SOCIETY - ST. MARY'S BRANCH.

On Monday evening last an open meeting was held in St. Andrew's Hall. The speaker of the evening was the Rev. J. J. McCann, V.G., who chose for his subject "The United Kingdom of St. Clement's Church in Rome," which brought vividly to his hearers the results which the excavations in this church had revealed, it having been found that there were in reality three churches built, one over the other.

Dr. J. E. Loftus acted as chairman, and Rev. A. O'Leary and Rev. Wm. McCann were also present.

A first-class programme was provided by the following artists: Messrs. A. Flavie, H. Finigan, J. De La Hute, H. P. Halle and Misses Margaret George, Kate Clarke and Carroll Mr. Frank Paton was the accompanist.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

On the afternoon of Dec. 20th, the children of St. Mary's School, Cedar Vale, one of the new R. C. Separate Schools established in St. Patrick's parish, Biddulph, gave a very pleasant entertainment and presented Miss N. E. Crumman, the retiring teacher, with the following address in poetry and a valuable gold chain, as a token of the esteem in which they held her. The address was read by Miss Elsie Blake, and the presentation made by Master Willie McLaughlin. Miss Crumman, by her kindness and amiability, won the love and esteem of the children, and respect of the parents.

Lines dedicated to Miss N. E. Crumman by the children of St. Mary's R. C. Separate School, Cedar Vale, Biddulph, on her retirement from the position of teacher, Dec. 20th, 1901:

QUINN - MacCALLUM.
A quiet New Year's wedding took place in St. Joseph's sacristy, Ottawa, last week, when Mr. William James Quinn, of St. John, N. B., at present of the Marine and Fisheries Department, was married to Miss Isabel MacCallum, teacher in primary class of St. Bridget's school. Rev. Wm. Murphy officiated and the chapel was prettily decorated with palms and lights for the occasion.

Before the holidays the teachers of the separate schools and the pupils of St. Bridget's presented Miss MacCallum with a purse of $25 in gold as a slight tribute to her worth and expressions of regret at her departure were mingled with the good wishes for her future. Last year the Ottawa Teachers' Association elected her to the presidential chair, the first time a separate school teacher won this honor, and it was given as a reward for a very able and thoughtful paper on "Supplementary Reading," read by her before the association. Miss MacCallum is a writer of no mean ability, and many bright and clever articles from her gifted pen have appeared in some of our leading magazines. To the young couple we extend our best wishes for life-long happiness and prosperity.

FOLEY-RYAN.
On Wednesday morning, January 8th, in the Catholic Church, Aytton, Miss Annie Ryan and Mr. Thomas Foley, both well known and highly respected residents of the township, were married by Rev. Father Owens. After the ceremony the young couple received the hearty congratulations of their many friends. The bridal party drove to the home of Mr. Thos. Ryan on the 12th con., brother of the bride. Among the guests were some from Mt. Forest, Egremont, Niagara Falls, New York and Sacramento, the great bulk of course, were representatives of their own fair township.

TILDEN-MARKS.
A Hamilton wedding has been solemnized between Miss Bella Marks, one of Hamilton's most popular musicians, and Mr. John H. Tilden, of the Gurney-Tilden Co. Rev. Father Maloney, of St. Mary's Cathedral, performed the ceremony.

FATHER MCCOLL HONORED.
A Peterborough despatch says: After Mass at St. Martin's Church, Ennismore, on Sunday, Rev. Father McColl, who is leaving there to come to Peterborough as rector of St. Peter's, was presented with an address and a collection of books by the choir, and with another affectionate and appreciative address, accompanied by a well-filled purse from the parishioners.

COMPLETED PROVERBS.

A RELIC OF FATHER MARQUETTE.
Toledo, O., Jan. 13. - Evidence was found to-day that proves almost beyond a doubt that the crucifix found at Frankfort, Mich., last summer by workmen excavating for the foundation of the Ann Arbor Summer Hotel there, was the property of Father Marquette, the famous Indian missionary. The crust was cleaned from its pedestal and the date 1664 was found on one side, while on the opposite side was found the inscription "M. and C., Quebec." Marquette left Quebec for upper Michigan in 1668 and was buried at Frankfort.

THE OPINION OF AN ADVERTISER.
To the Editor of The Register:
Dear Sir - It gives me much pleasure to state that the advertisement which I have in The Catholic Register has well paid me. As a rule I find it difficult to tell from which source trade comes through advertising, but on several occasions I know good patrons have come to me through your paper.

Yours,

MR DOBELL ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.
A private cable received last Saturday from England announced the death of Hon. R. R. Dobell, a member of the Dominion Cabinet without portfolio. The message read that Mr. Dobell was killed while out riding at Flokestone; Death came instantaneously, the horse having shied at a motor car throwing his rider heavily.

"The Man From Glengarry" is, without doubt, the cleverest story before the American people to-day, and the best of it is that it is purely a Canadian story, by a Canadian author - Ralph Connor (Rev. C. W. Gordon, Winnipeg). It has had a phenomenal sale amongst those who can pay high prices for such books, but The Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal, has done the right thing to publish it in that great paper, and the first chapters are announced for January 29th issue. Family Herald subscribers will enjoy this great story, and its publication is sure to add thousands of new readers for that wonderful family paper. This story alone is worth the year's subscription price (one dollar), not to speak of the three handsome pictures that are sent to each subscriber.

ST. PATRICK'S SOCIETY, OTTAWA.
St. Patrick's Literary and Scientific Association, Ottawa, at its annual meeting discussed the formal opening of the new hall on Maria street, and the St. Patrick's day concert. The hall will be opened likely on January 20th, when addresses will be delivered by public men and a programme of song and music given. Several hundred new volumes have recently been ordered from New York and Dublin for the library, bringing the total number of volumes up to about twelve hundred.

The feature of the concert on St. Patrick's day will be the address to be delivered by Rev. Father Fallon, of Buffalo, N. Y., formerly of St. Joseph's Church here.

W. H. CUNNINGHAM, MONTREAL DEAD.
Ex-Ald. William H. Cunningham, of Montreal, died very suddenly at his residence, 26 Shuter street, that city. The immediate cause of death was heart failure. Deceased was a native of Factory Point, Bennington County, Vermont, where he was born on September 12th, 1841. In 1849 his father came to Montreal with his family, and established the St. Lawrence Marble Works. On the death of his father, in 1869, deceased went to Boston, and in 1873 engaged in marble work at St. Alban's, where he was very successful. In 1877 he came back to this city, and established the old marble works anew.

In 1877 he was elected alderman for St. Lawrence Ward, and was re-elected in 1890, but declined to accept the nomination in 1893, when his term had expired. He served on the Fire and Market Committees in October, 1891, on the death of Ald. Malone, he was made chairman of the Market Committee, a position which he held to the end of his term as alderman.

He was a member of the Council of Arts and Manufactures for the Province, and a member of St. Patrick's Society, of which he had been a vice-president.

OUR MOTIER.
Like a bird in springtime singing,
Till the budding vales are ringing
With the sweetness and the richness of its pure melodious tones,
So our boy with locks of yellow,
Happy, laughing little fellow,
Breaks the stillness of the household with a music all his own,
Mother revels in his metre,
Which is daily growing sweeter,
And her heart is filled with rapture in the fullness of her joy;
And she cries between her kisses,
"Thou that art such joy as this is,
(Which I merit not) I pray thee guard and guide our precious boy."

Like the dewdrops on the flowers
When the lavish sunlight showers
All its wealth of golden treasures
From its darling home above,
So our boy's face is beaming
With the joy of angels dancing,
And it sparkles in the sunshine
Of purity and love.
Mother folds him to her bosom,
This the bright, bewitching blossom
That the great All-Father lent her
To enrich her humble home;
And she feels, like every mother,
Earth possesses no such other;
And her heart-felt thanks are soaring
To the blue of heaven's dome.

Like the meadow fresh and cheery,
Of whose face no eye grows weary,
Smiles the dimpled little fairy
With the cheeks of glowing red;
Mother's lips her child's are pressing,
Mother's arms his form caressing,
Mother's voice is asking blessings
on his little golden head:
"All ye seraphim of heaven,
Night and morning, noon and even,
Guide the footsteps of our treasure
till his pilgrimage is trod;
Jesus reign within him ever,
Blessed Mary leave him never,
Both with Joseph and his spirit
when it wings its flight to God."

CLARIFIED MILK TALK, No. 1.
Clarified milk represents the cleanest and most wholesome class of milk for distribution. No particle of dust, dirt, sediment or adulteration can exist in it because it is subjected to centrifugal force. The sources from which it comes are regularly inspected as well as the milk, and as this Company now buys a milk on the basis of so much butter-fat, customers may depend upon the highest quality. There is no chance of infection from Clarified Milk, delivered in sterile bottles.
This is worthy of serious consideration.
