CORRESPONDENCE.

COLONNE FRANCAISE. No. 3.

To the Editor of the TRUE WITNESS. Mr. Editor. If the church founded by Our Lord Jesus Christ, the one Holy Catholic Church, is able to withstand all the attacks of the world, the flesh and the devil drawn up in battle array against her in Italy, Germany, Mexico, Brazil and elsewhere, if she can afford to have her seamless garment of holiness and purity torn from her shoulders, and holiness and puttly sorn from her shoulders, and patiently submit to be clothed in the garments of som by the princes and potentates of the earth, She may well be allowed a slight recreation, and to indulge in a harmless cachinnation at the spasmodic efforts of the Colonne Française the Daily Witness et hoc genus omme, to deprive her of the love and allegiance of the noble hearted sons of Cartier and Champlain. They have not yet been, and I hope they never will be tried in the crucible of affliction like their brethren of England, Ireland, and Scot-land: they have not yet seen their bishops and priests hunted down, like felons led to the prison and the gibbet, and their consecrated virgins ruthlessly expelled from their homes of Mercy and Neither have they yet witnessed the melancholy spectacle of Churches plundered and dismantled, aliars desecrated, the sacred symbol of our redemption and the images of the Holy Mother and of the Saints, broken into fragments and trampled under foot. This however is the dish in preparation for Catholic Canada by the chefs de cuisine of the Colonne Française and the Daily Witness. Did you not hear the former a few days ago, gloating over the vulture feast, which he prophesied was to be served up in Canada as it now is in Italy? Have you forgotten the pious hymn sung by the Evangelical Miller, who at the great Oka gathering in the Mechanics' Hall, urged his hearers to grasp-grad and squeeze the property of the church till it should be as smooth as a lady's glove? Thank you kindly gentlemen all, for thus putting us on our guard.

I proceed next to the correspondence of the Colonne Française. There are three letters submitted to the public in that sheet, which I intend putting through their paces. They consist of two from Albert Redon natif de France, and one from P. E. ouvrier Français, a constant reader of the Witness. The first is a rather plausible production, setting forth the pains and penalties attached to contractors in France, who through negligence or want of due precaution, shall have caused any serious injury to their subordinates or employes. The object of the writer was to urge upon Mons. le Redacteur the propriety of having the same laws introduced here, instead of bothering his brains with Catholic matters with which he had nothing to do. So far as I am capable of judging the letter appeared to be well written and correctly spelled. (I am sorry that I cannot quote the exact words, for I tore up the paper by way of precaution against its falling into the hands of any of my family.) The Redacteur subjoined a few remarks to the effect that the letter was evidently the production of a working man, educated by friars and Jesuits.

Letter No 2 of Albert Redon appears in the Colonne of Aug. 15th. That gentleman, after politely thanking Monsieur for his complaisance in in-serting the first brochure, indignantly repudiates the supposition of his being a pupil either of Jesuits or freres, whose credulity is too much for him to swallow. He defines himself to be a Roman Catholic sound and square, and leaves all miracles whether those of La Bonne Ste Anne or elsewhere to the fools who believe them. It was hardly fair, Mons. le redacteur, entre nous, to send forth to the world this epistle from so good a protestant, embellished with the most glaring defects in Syntax and ortho-

Letter No. 3 of P. E. ouvrier Francais runs in much the same strain. He is another Roman Catholic, of course, of the same stamp as Albert, dertakes to lecture by reminding him that the Catholic religion in Canada is only a mon-strous parody of the Catholic religion in France. With miracles he will have nothing to do. To be sure there is a horde of miscreants (bande de tenebreux Sacripants) grubbing in the dark, who manufacture that commodity, but they find few purchasers for their wares, &c &c. Mr. Editor, I have too high an opinion of French workingmen who call themselves Catholics, to believe that any such could be found capable of penning No. 2, or No. 3. A French workingman, who is a Catholic is one in very deed. When he is no Catholic, he is never a hypocrite unless he be an are mythe .-

Two decoy ducks-beware-Such traitor aid we well can spare.

Arcades ambo-Non tali auxilio, nec defensoribus istis

Tempus eget. But more appropriate still are the words of the Man-God, the Founder of the Catholic church, Jesus Christ. He that is not with me is against me, and he that soweth not with me scattereth Luke XI. 23. I had proposed before concluding to glance at an article in the Daily Witness of Aug 16th, entitled the worship of Ste Anne; but I prefer to say a few words on a proposed discussion spoken of in Thursday's paper the 17th, between the cure Racine and the Protestant Minister Mr. Cote, Chicoutimi P. Q. For my own part, I do not think that such discussions between two opposing champions with descriptions and the like a main and the like a m champions, pitted against each other like a main of fighting cocks, can be productive of much good. I can recall four at least, of such discussions, and I Pope and the Rev. Father T. Maguire; the second between hather T. Maguire and the Rev. T. Gregg, the debate between Rev. Campbell and Purcell, and that between bishop Hughes and the Rev. Mr. Breckenridge of New York. The contestants on either side were probably the best that could be chosen, fully equal to the Rev. Cure Racine and the Rev. Mr. Cote. The discussions, conducted with the utmost courtesy an audience composed of a rude peasantry incapable of forming a correct judgment of either party. I can easily imagine that the tactics of the French Canadian Missionary Society, on such an occasion would be to smother the worthy Cure under an avalanche of texts drawn from Scripture without rhyme or reason.
To prove that Catholics have nothing to tear from such discussions,—I started on a tour of consented to act as Agent in that inspection through the different religious bookstores borhood for the True Witness.

Breckenridge? Never heard of any of those works. Same questions at another religious book store with similar result. I called next at Sadlier's, No. 275 Notre Dame Street. Have you the controversy between Pope and Magnire? Yes sir. Between Magnire and Gregg? All sold. Will you please show me the Debate between Hughes and Breckenridge? Here are two editions, you can have your choice. On pretence of merely wishing to ascertain the date of those discussions, 1827-1836, and thanking the bookseller for his courtesy, I returned home perfectly satisfied with the result of my walk. In conclusion, I beg the French Canadian Missionary Society to understand, that instead of going about the country "like a thief in the night," sowing the cockle of discord in the field of one good Catholic grain, if they would take the wholesome advice of Albert Redon natif de France (alias redacteur of the Colonne Française) to mind their own business .- pack up their traps, and betake themselves to the honest occupation of delving, hoeing, or breaking stones, they might stand the ghost of a chance to arrive some fine morning within gunshot of the portals of Paradise: - (a blessing which I fervently wish them all &c. Amen.) A. G. GRANT.

ST. FRANCIS' PILGRIMAGE TO LONGUE POINTE.

To the Editor of the TRUE WITNESS.

DEAR SIR,—Being aware of your willingness to insert in the columns of your truly Catholic paper any thing redounding to the honor and consolation of our Holy Church and conducive to the edification of its children, I dare send you a short account of a pilgrimage made by the Tertians of St. Francis to the Parish of Longue Pointe dedicated to their Seraphic Patron.

At an early hour on Sunday morning might have been seen a large number of recollected respectable pilgrims wending their way toward the Jacques Cartier wharf to embark on board the "Montarville" for Longue Pointe. On leaving, at the instigation of their inestimable Director, Canon Dufresne, the well-disposed Tertians recited the "Itinerary" whereby to implore God's protection during the day and His blessing on their pilgrimage. On arriving at their destination the pious pilgrims, invested in their holy habits and accompanied by the parish priest and his parishioners, proceeded, in procession, to the Church where the Adorable Sacrifice of the Mass was offered by Revd. F. Dufresne, and at which upwards of two hundred communicated.

At ten o'clock High Mass was sung by Revd. F. Martin, assisted by Revd. F. Perrault and Mr. Pepin. Revd. F. Prud'homme preached a very eloquent sermon.

Messrs. Theriault made the walls of the Church resound with their exquisite singing.

After Grand Mass, on the kind invitation of the Good Sisters, the pilgrims visited the insane asylum the cleanliness and beauty of which elicited many expressions of admiration.

In the afternoon, after Vespers, the impressive and interesting ceremony of receiving seven Post-ulants, fifteen Novices and five professed members, took place in the presence of a large number of the Longue Pointe parishioners one of whom made his profession in the design of conducting others who will not tarry in following in his path.

Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was given in the graceful chapel of the Asylum at 4 o'clock, after which the Pilgrims started for the boat, feeling and having made others feel that religion was not incompatible with happiness.

As many may desire to know who these pilgrims are, let it be said that they are single and married persons, observing a rule established by St. Francis IX, who does not disdain to wear the penitential livery of this saving order.

Anyone feeling himself moved to join this Third Order of St. Francis, enriched by so many indulgences, as so well becomes an order established for people living in the midst of the world, need not fear its apparent severity; as the Church, knowing the constitution of her children, provides for their weakness. Let him also remember that, "where there is a will, there is a way."-SPECTATOR.

PRIMERORE ONT. Aug., 23 176: To the Editor of the TRUE WITNESS.

The Grey Nuns under whose contral this establishment has been happily placed have achieved such distinction as educationists in Ottawa and elsewhere—as to render it supercrogation to dwell upon the merits of this institution.

It must afford the Bishop of Ottawa great gratification to have such an excellent institution thrown open to pupils from all part of his own and the neighboring dioceses.

OBITUARY.

MR. JOSEPH NAZAIRE DUPUIS.

Mr. Joseph Nazaire Dupuis, Born at St James of l'Achigan on the 1st of August 1844 A resident of Montreal for the past few years only he had succeeded by his affability, in making for himself a large number of friends, who will hear of do not remember that in any one of them, the his death, with profound sorrow. As a business man Catholic champion came off second best. The first Mr. Dupuis, was without doubt a model of probity was the celebrated discussion between Rev Mr. and candor. A never failing activity, undunted perseverance and ingenious though strictly honest manocuvres had forced fortune to smile on him despite the hardness of the times. But God does not always ordain according to our wishes, and pitiless Death has cut him off in the midst of his brightest hopes, in the flower of his youth, at the age of thirty-two. The communities lose in him a zealous benefactor, the poor a father ever ready to succor their wants, and all to whom he was known a sincere and devoted friend. As to his parents on both sides, occupied a long time and embraced a a sincere and devoted friend. As to his parents variety of subjects. The replies and rejoinders were and relations, his loss will leave a void that never, never can be filled. From the beginning of his sickclies, in the presence of audiences composed of educated men, capable of following an argument to its conclusion, and not in a remote will a superscript of the super after being submitted, were signed by the respective ness he offered to God, the sacrifice of all that bound midst of excruciating torments. And his last breath, tranquil as the soul that exhaled it, was given to the God, whose image he pressed to his heart, with such love and hope.—Requiescat in pace. Ls. N. E.

NEW AGENTS.

Mr. John L. Barry, of Halifax, N.S., has kindly consented to act as Agent in that city and neigh-

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

We do not wish in these hard times to be calling on the pockets of our subscribers; but they must be awakened some how. To send our agent around to each person who has not paid us for the present would force us to an expenditure that is inconvenient. We try to do our duty; we endeavour to give good value for our subscriptions, and as there are many, very many, in both city and country now much indebted to us, we require some money from every body who is as honest as our purpose is to serve them. We therefore, request those so indebted to pay up quickly.

NOTICE.

Owing to the large amount of space hitherto occupied by the insertion of notices of addresses and presentations, and the publication of educational and bazaar prize lists, pic-nics, &c., in justice to ourselves we have decided that for the future we shall charge such matter at the rate of ten cents per line. As with persons in other commercial pursuits, so with newspaper publishers—they are in duty bound to make their business yield to the full all legitimate profits. Space is one of the sources of the printer's income; and when this is taken up with reading matter not of general interest it should be paid for. We therefore respectfully invite attention to these conditions, which are as reasonable to those who avail themselves of the advantages of our circulation, as they are necessary by way of help in the discharge of our liabilities.

We have been informed on the best authority, that there is a good opening for a few good shoe makers, shopkeepers, and Merchant Tailors in Walkerton, Ont.

DOMINION ITEMS.

The Catholic Church at Irishtown, Ont., in Rev. Father Murphy's mission, is being enlarged and embellished.

Rev. L. A. Wassereau, for many years pastor of the Ashfield Mission, and late assistant at Stratford, is T now stationed at Amherstburg.

Rev. M. Stafford, of Lindsay, the Canadian Apostle M of Temperance, is about to visit Ireland, where he will spend a few months. We wish him bon voyage and a safe return.

Dedication, St. Cathabines, August 28.—The St. Mary's Church, on Hainer Hill, was dedicated yesterday morning, the Rev. Fathers O'Reilly and Mulligan officiating. In compliance with a requirement of the Catholic Church that each bishop throughout the world shall once in ten years personally visit the Pope at the Holy See, Bishop Walsh, of London, has gone to Rome. His Lordship is accompanied by Rev. Father Wagner, of Windsor. During his absence at Rome, Vicar-General Bruyere has been appointed acting Bishop of London. A new Catholic church is to be built in Mitchell.

The brick walls will be seventeen feet six inches in height, with a high pitched roof. The breadth of the structure is to be thirty-five feet six inches. and the length seventy feet, with a chancel of twenty feet extra. The spire will be eighty-six persons, observing a rule established by St. Flands feet in height. The whole is to be comfortably of Assissium and approved of by His Holiness Pius feet in height. The whole is to be comfortably IX who does not disdain to wear the penitential seated, and, with the gallery, will accommodate large congregations.

DISTINCTION TO A MONTREALER.-We learn with pleasure that our respected and well known fellowcitizen Doctor Leprohon, Professor to the Medical Faculty of Bishop's College, has just been the recipient of a gratifying mark of honor through the hands of Count De Premio-Real, Consul-General of Spain, who has just returned to Quebec after a sojourn of some months at Madrid. Doctor Leprohon has received a diploma constituting him member and honorary correspondent of the Sociedad Genecologica Espanola of Madrid, a medical and scientific society counting the leading savans of Spain among its ranks. The President is Don A. Rodrigues Rubi, physician in ordinary to His Majesty Don Alfonso. Among the few foreign physicians enrolled as members of this society France furnishes, the illustrious It is a matter of great gratification to the people names of Cazcau and Levret, England those of of this town that the Central Canada Railroad has Burns, Smellie and Simpson. We cordially conments thus paid him.

The Exeter Times says:—The largest crop of fall wheat we have heard of in this vicinity (Centralia) is that of Mr. McCoy, who has thirty bushels to the acre. The average crop is four or five bushels.

Late spring wheat near Listowel has been badly injured by the frost during the early part of last week. One farmer in Wallace, who has 90 acres, thinks the whole so completely damaged as not to be worth taking off the ground.

There is a great scarcity of dwelling houses in St. Mary's. The Argus says, "There is not an empty house in town which is at all comfortable, and unless something in immediately described. less something is immediately done to supply the demand the town will come to a stand-still."

BARLEY CROP.—The Belleville Intelligencer says "A gentleman whose opportunities for forming an estimate are excellent, informs us that in this section there will be a large yield of barley, and that the grain will generally be light, though of good color. Late sown will turn out better than early sown, the latter having shrunk much more than the former. The acreage sown is very large, and no doubt the receipts here will be larger even than those of last year."

THE SAWN LUMBER TRADE .- Ottawa sawn lumbermen report very gloomy prospects for the coming fall and winter, and there is no reason to doubt the soundness of their judgment. An active demand for sawn lumber for the United States cannot be expected until after a full recovery from the general ousiness depression there. Although this depression has continued for some time, it must be remembered that there was not only the ordinary inflation in business which accompanies a time of prosperity in any country, but the extraordinary inflation caused by the enormous expenditure of the war. The reaction, therefore, would or necessity be both severe and long-continued, as the waste of ordinary buying power by the war, and the overgrowth of business in proportion to the requirements of peaceful times, caused by the war expenditures, have both to be added to the normal causes which led to depression in trade.—Hamilton

Times. The St. John's News says that 1,600 tons of rails have been shipped from England and are daily expected at Shediac. The bridge across the Petitcodiac at Salisbury will be completed within three weeks. More than half the superstructure (Howe truss) is up; the foundation was completed some time ago. As soon as the rails arrive tracklaying and ballasting will commence from Salisbury to Hillsbury. The divergence of the line into the village of Hillsboro from Foley Hill, a distance of about three miles, is now being pushed forward vigorously, and will be ready within three weeks. mapection through the different religious bookstores borhood for the True Witness.
