For grocers and general dealers in a well-selected assortment of Tobaccos. But unless the article has a reputation for meeting all the requirements of the most exacting smoker, you had better not keep it at all. Our

for instance, has stood the test for many years. If you keep it you keep something that reflects credit on your judgment, helps other departments of your business, and leaves you a good margin of profit. Its the same with our famous FANCY MIXTURES—or indeed anything in Tobacco bearing our name, which has come to be regarded as a guarantee of excellence. We have found that merit tells. So will you.

Mercantile Summary.

A GROCER of about two years establishment, A. E. Phillips, of Smith's Falls, has assigned to a local accountant; liabilities are small. —At Ottawa, Wm. Codd, who began in the saloon business three years ago under favorable auspices, has assigned.

"A SKILLED mining engineer is to be sent out from London, Eng., in about a month's time, to make a preliminary investigation into the extent of the nickel bearing deposit here," says the St. Croix Courier. "His investigation will be made with a view of working the mines, if found profitable."

A LETTER is said to have been received by the Seattle, Wash., Chamber of Commerce which states that Messrs. Samuel Samuels & Co., of London, will immediately start a line of steamers for the Great Northern between China and Japan and Seattle. With the Canadian Pacific, the Northern Pacific and Great Northern running lines of steamers from the Orient to the Sound, it looks as though competition would be lively.

A BOOT and shoe firm at Three Rivers, Que., named Masse & Co., have assigned, owing between $4,000 and $5,000. Mr. Masse was formerly in the manufacturing business at Doucet's Landing, and failed there several years ago; since then he has been doing business in his wife's name. —J. L. Preville, general dealer, of Joliette, Que., whose failure we noted lately, is arranging a composition at 60 per cent. —Adolphe Lebeau, a hotel man at Sault au Recollet, back of Montreal, has been asked to turn over his estate to an assignee.
