

DOCTOR PAUL EHRLICH,

Frankfort, Germany, whose discovery, at his 606th experiment of a preparation apparently specific in certain cases of Syphilis, was partly the result of a grant of money from the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, the promiscuous exploitation of which is deprecated.— See Page 170.