

ACTION PLAN: OBJECTIVE THREE - CANADIAN VALUES AND CULTURE

ACTION PLAN - ISSUE 3D

The Department supports foreign academics who study Canada and reinforce foreign perceptions of Canadian values. It funds scholarships that bring foreign graduate students to Canada, as well as extensive reciprocal youth and young-worker exchanges that expose other young foreigners to Canadian values, culture and perspectives.

ACTION	MILESTONE INDICATORS
Continue to support the development of overseas Canadian studies associations with the objective of nourishing an independent, authoritative foreign capacity to report objectively on Canada and issues involving it.	Maintain existing regional associations and expand as appropriate into new territories
Continue to develop agreements to encourage international mobility of students and faculty.	Ensure active follow-up to agreements with Europe and North America, and to the pilot project of the Commonwealth Scholarship and Fellowship Program
Continue to enable youth and young-worker exchange programs.	Appropriately 12,000 young persons exchanged annually
