

well as to soldiers, and had she passed, her name would have been at the head of the list amongst the soldiers, and she would have been assigned to one of the first vacancies over any civilian candidates who might have taken higher marks.

Yours very truly,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "W. Roche". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned to the right of the typed closing "Yours very truly,".