

. . 107
 India . 109
 Company. 110
 . . 112
 . . 115
 . . 117
 its Con-
 . . 119
 . . 120
 . . 121
 . . 122
 . . 125
 . . 126
 . . 128
 . . 130
 . . 134

 BEGINNING D OF THE

 chusetts lers its
 . . 137
 em . 139
 . . 141
 . . 143
 . . 144
 . . 147
 re and
 . . 148
 . . 152
 . . 153
 . 158

CONTENTS.

ix

	PAGE
Jeremy Taylor's 'Liberty of Prophesying'	238
Return of Presbyterian power	241
The Restoration	242
The King's Declarations. Their important statements touching the Church	243
The King's treatment of the Presbyterians. Their disappointment	246
Venner's insurrection. Unyielding spirit of the Presbyterians	247
Baxter's conduct	248
The Savoy Conference	249
Alterations in the Book of Common Prayer, 1661	250
Reference to our Colonies in its Preface then drawn up	251
Remarks thereon	252
Act of Uniformity	253
Reflections thereon	254
Ejection of Nonconformists	257
Other acts of severity against them	258
George Fox. John Bunyan	259
Policy towards Roman Catholics	260
Condition of the Church during this reign at home. Her distinguished Ministers	263
And Lay-members	264
Condition of the Church in Scotland	266
Character of Charles II.	267
Its evil influences	269

CHAPTER XVI.

THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND IN THE LEVANT, INDIA,
 THE WEST INDIES, AND CAROLINA, UNDER THE COMMONWEALTH AND CHARLES II.

A.D. 1648-9—1685-6.

THE LEVANT	271
Its Chaplains	272
And Consuls	274