

- Phillips, J. S., on the brain of the Iroquois, 32.
- Phoenix Hotel, the, 324.
- Pierre, Le Jeune's Indian teacher, 104, 105, 108, 109, 111, 116, 122, 126, 127, 212.
- Pijart, Father Pierre, sent to the Huron mission, 174; work among the Hurons, 185; covert baptisms, 186; finds the new mission of the Immaculate Conception, 200; tranquil boldness of, 216.
- Pilot, the dog, 367, 369.
- Piscataqua River, the, 7.
- Piskaret, Simon, the champion of the Algonquins, 376; converted, 376; exploits of, 376, 377, 378; delivers his captives to Montmagny, 380; murder of, 406.
- Place d'Armes, 89, 535.
- Plains of Abraham, the, 91, 434.
- Plymouth, 425.
- Poncet, the Jesuit, 194, 216, 274.
- Pontiac, 33, 530.
- Porcupine, Nation of the, see Nation of the Porcupine.
- Poterie, 254.
- Potier, 9.
- Prairie, Nation of the, see Nation of the Prairie.
- Priest, the, as a ruler, 251.
- Provincial, Padre, 54.
- Puants, the, 470.
- Puck Wudj Ininee, the, 64.
- Puiseaux, M. de, 247; hospitality towards Maisonneuve, 297.
- Puritans, the, Indians a thorn in the flesh of, 5; opposition to the Jesuits, 422, 427; refuse to fight without a reason, 429.
- QUATOGIES (Hurons), the, 9.
- Quebec, 3, 8, 88; evacuated by the English, 90; restored to France, 101; Father Le Jeune arrives at, 102; Champlain arrives at, 108; the Hurons at, 133; without a governor, 241; arrival of Montmagny, 241; the Jesuits all in all at, 245; a model of decorum, 246; new establishments of religion and charity at, 246; wears an aspect half military, half monastic, 250; celestial atmosphere of, 252; plays and processions at, 253; methods of conversion at, 255; preparation for baptism, 256; origin of its institutions, 259; seminary for Huron boys at, 259; Madame de la Peltrie founds a new convent at, 266; the Duchesse d'Aiguillon founds a H^{ôte}l-Dieu at, 274; arrival of the nuns at, 275; in danger of utter ruin, 287; in danger from the Iroquois, 335; happy in its founder, 372; notable changes at, 429; the Hundred Associates transfer their monopoly of the fur-trade to the inhabitants of, 429; jealousy between Montreal and, 431; New Year's Day at, 432; the Jesuits decide to bring the remnant of the Hurons to, 519; the fugitives arrive at, 522; plan of, 535.
- Quebec, Supreme Court of, 289.
- Quebec, Syndic of, 431.
- Quen, De, on the population of the Hurons, 11; 401, 403; ascends the Saguenay, 416; on the death of Garreau, 514; on the cause of the Iroquois-Erie war, 543; on the Iroquois force, 544, 545.
- RACINE, the Abbé, account of Madame de l'Incarnation, 269.