

PREFACE

of Judge Johnstone, I have endeavoured to sketch impartially the labours of these three distinguished Premiers of Nova Scotia.

However imperfectly I have performed my task—and of this I am quite conscious—I offer to the public the result of my labours, trusting that it may prove a contribution to the history of this Province, distinguished, as it is, for its large number of eminent men.

THE AUTHOR.

Halifax, Nova Scotia, September, 1909.
