by the Sarnia police. When the house conducted by the girl's mother was raided, Miss Tree and Miss Annie Swanson escaped. During the night they hired a friend to carry them after her arrival here, and was deported a few days ago. Miss Tree evaded the officers for several days and later was arrested at St. Clair, Mich.

The story told by the girl during gration authorities was a most pitiful one. She said that when but a child she had been tutored in prostitution and that none had taught her differ-

The town council held their regular meeting last night, all the members being present, and Mayor Duggan presiding. A deputation from the Excelsior Lacrosse Club was introduced, and Messrs. F. W. Gillies and Thomas Mara, on behalf of the lacrosse club, asked for a grant of $200 to assist them in running the club and fostering amateur sport. Mr. Gillies said it was the best means of advertising the town, and in all his travels from coast to coast the lacrosse club had advertised the town. Mr. Mara advocated the purchasing of an athletic field by the town council in co-operation with private citizens.

W. H. McFadden, the town solicitor, read his report on bylaws on roadway construction, as asked for at la stsession. A communication was read from the water commissioners, also one from the Hydro-Electric Commission, agreeing to pay one-third each for the upkeep of the municinal offices.
