GRENS. KEEP UP WINNING STRIDE

In the Second Game, Highlanders Beat Body Guards by Two Runs.

Grenadiers still keep up their winning gait. They defeated the Army Medical Corps team 27 to 12 Saturday at the armory, and the score just about shows the difference between the two teams. A.M.C. played a good game, but could not make much impression on the stone-wall defense of the Grens, who have a bunch of youngsters and the steadiness and experience of veterans. They will be very hard to stop. Grens, with home runs, Morrison and Duncan, and Macdonald, were the leaders with the bat.
