

HAIR DRESSING.

PROF. H. R. SMITH,

Hair Dressing, Wig-making & Bathing Rooms,

EQUAL TO ANY ESTABLISHMENT IN NEW YORK,

No. 70 GREAT ST. JAMES STREET, MONTREAL.

Wigs, Bands, Plaits, Curls, Puffs, Bracelets, Watch-Guards, Rings, and all kinds of Ornamental Hair Work, not surpassed for neatness and durability of workmanship by any Establishment in America.

CAPILLARY BALM—for cleansing and beautifying the hair.

ROSE LUSTRAL—unrivalled for Ladies' use.

VEGETABLE OIL—unsurpassed in dressing the hair.

For the above manufacture a diploma was awarded by the Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association at their Exhibition of 1856.

Prof. SMITH has obtained 15 first class assistants from New York, and has instituted very strict rules for the accommodation of his customers, for which he refers to his pamphlet which he distributes gratis.

Gentlemen can rely on having their hair cut or dyed in a superior manner and latest styles.

N.B.—Special personal attention paid by the Professor to cutting Ladies' and Children's Hair, also Hair and Whisker Dyeing.

A competent female operator is in attendance at the Ladies' Room, from 9 A. M. till 8 P. M.
