The property was owned by an English estate, and the sale was affected by R. W. Wilson, of Saskaton, who gave the foregoing information. He is in Montreal on his way home from Edinburgh, where the final negotiations were completed. New Grain Rates.

New York, March 9.—The Journal of Commerce says: At a meeting of trunk line traffic managers new "lake and rail" rates, to take effect on the opening of navigation, were decided on. Compared with rates a year ago they are one-half cent, per bushel lower on wheat, and flax, unchanged on barley and oats, and are one-half per cent, bushel higher on rye and corn. Following are the rates, 1906: Wheat, 41-2:flax, 41-2:rye, 41-2:corn,4:barley,4: oats, 3. The new rates refer to export business only and for the first time in some years higher, lake and rail rates will be charged for local than for export grain business.
