The kissing bug, of which so much appeared in the newspapers a few years ago, is closely allied. It is worth while investigating this insect further, according to Dr. Dearness.

Hard on Humans.

The species named has distinguished itself more by inflicting severe bites upon human beings than upon cattle. It is much more troublesome in the Southern and Middle States than in our lattitude.

An Illinois medical man. Dr. E. S. Hull, reports being so badly bitten by one he was handling that his arm was almost useless for three days, and he suffered painfully from it.

The men left the sanatorium at 2:30 and drove through the streets of this city to Governor's road, thence to Thamesford, Ingersoil and back to Dorchester.

The cars were parked on the farm of William Chittick, Dorchester, where lunch was served on the river bank. Ald, Frank Harley was in charge of the arrangements at the farm. He and a number of other members of the committee arrived at the farm before the party and made final arrangements.

The place was an ideal spot for the piculc and the returned men sat on the bank of the river and were served refreshments provided by 17 mothers clubs of this city.

James Gray was in charge of the city about 7:15 last evening.

of Living a life of Worry, Fear and Irritability of Temper when you can easily break away from these disorders of the Nerves. When you are strong and healthy you can quite readily ward off many troubles that seem unconquerable. HACKING'S HEART AND NERVE REMEDY regenerates the nerves, tones up the grey matter in the brain and helps you ward off many troubles. Simply makes you Sleep Better, Eat Better and Live Longer; it is considered good against faintings and swoonings because it adds Tonicity to the Heart Action and puts new life in the wornout Nerves. The results of the London Conserva-It can scatter a large herd over a hundred acres very quickly, and annoys the milch cows terribly. If these pests continue to increase as they have during the past year, they will kill the cattle.

What are we going to do with such a pest?

R. R. I. Ilderton.

The results of the London Conservations are given below. The number of candidates presenting themselves was the largest in the history of the institution. The London Conservatory standard is the most difficult of attainment in Canada, and ambitious students are trying for these certificates and diplomas in a pest?

LUCAN. WINDSOR, July 17.—Grand Master W. H. Wardrope, K.C., of Hamilton, formally opened the 63rd annual com-munication of the Masonic Grand Lodge

Ghson, all past masters.

The freedom of the city was extended the delegates by Mayor Charles R. Tuson, who, in a short address, expressed the hope that the influence of Masonry might lead the world out of its present state of turmoil and chaos. To those delegates who wished to cross the river into the United States during their stay here he was sure the badge of Masonry would carry them safely past the perils of the immigration officers at the ferry docks.

Grandmaster Reply.

Grandmaster Wardrope made a fitting reply to the mayor's address, and created considerable mirth by the statement that he "had been informed by Deputy Harcourt that it was possible to get 2 per cent extra for the same money (in referring to temperance beer), in Windsor over what might be had in Detroit.

Greetings from the four Windsor lodges were presented by Messrs. Maw. Howe, Beasley and Turner, masters of Great Western, Windsor, Rose and Ontario lodges, and in this connection Wor. Bro. Howe read an engrossed address referring to the fact that sixteen years have passed since the grand lodge met in Windsor before. During this period the local membership had increased from four hundred to more than 1500. An appropriate reply to the greeting was made by the grandmaster.

Order is Flourishing.

In presenting his report for the year Grand Master Wardrope showed that Masonry had flourished greatly in spite of the demands made by the war. There

"Para-Sana" Wax Paper

To Conserve Food One of the greatest enemies the householder has to fight is waste. This fact is being daily impressed upon us. Every bit of food wasted is helping the enemy by making it harder to feed our own armies. Every bit we save means that much less to buy, and the less food we buy the better for our soldiers. "Para-Sana" Wax Paper saves the leftover food from drying out and waste, and keeps fresh and clean your uncooked supplies. This wax paper is waterproof, and will protect your picnic lunch. If sandwiches are wrapped they won't be ruined by coming in contact with tomatoes, pickles, fruit, etc., if a little juicy.

Rolls About Half the Price of Sheets

This is the economical way to buy your wax paper and have an attractive oak-finished cabinet to keep it in, which fastens on your pantry or kitchen walls. The knife-edge cutter to tear off just the quantity you need voids any waste. Put up in four sized rolls, as
