Club Races Saturday

Note and Comment

The passing was short and brilliant, on both sides at times in the lacrosse incident Saturday between Toronto and Shamrocks, and it was close enough thruout except around the sixth and seventh games to please the enthusiasts who took the suburban ride to see.

Amateur Baseball

That the move on the part of the president of the Don Valley League in securing the return of Ed. Barnes was a wise one, was shown on Saturday, when the two games on the program were run off in three hours, besides not one kick being registered on his decisions. The largest crowd of the season was on hand, there being easily 1200, a good percentage being ladies. In the first game, the Carltons got off to a good start and were never headed, Graham being very effective in tight corners, Yages, for losers, also twirled well, but errors and poor base-running lost him his game. Score, 11—4. The second game was the best played yet in the series, both teams playing gilt-edged ball, the Saints winning by bunching hits in the sixth innings, tho the Irishmen started a raily in the eighth and minth, and, with the bases occupied, a hit would have tide the score, but Allward struck the last two batters out. Altogether the games were very interesting and devolve great credit on the
