RACE BETTING DIES HARD IN MONTREAL

They Have a Scheme to Try Unorganized Variety at Kempton Park.

Montreal, Aug. 7.—That the horsemen who have been racing hareships regarded the coming Kempton Course race meeting as a serious venture which will be in all likelihood meet with success, was evident today when a large number of owners forwarded their charges to the Lapointe track. A number of Montreal owners are among those shipping to Kempton, and from indications it will be possible to run a Canadian-owned or Canadian-bred event daily.
That there will be plenty of opportunity for watering seems to be an understood fact, and it will be interesting to see how the technicalities of the law are worked out. "No organized betting" is the dictum in the order-in-council which was issued from Ottawa. The Kempton management given every assistance that there will not be the slightest infraction of the law.
They have even, as a matter of fact, asked for the appointment of a proprietary government inspector to see that there is no evasion, nevertheless it is imputed that there will be opportunity for those sportsmen inclined to make wagers by the oral method, now prevalent in New York State, in many testcases it has been found that the oral method withstood legal tests, and the interpretation. How similar methods which are likely to be in vogue at Kempton will fare remains to be seen.
The mile track at Kempton is rounding to fine condition, and horsemen are already working their changes there. The entire plant is being thoroughly renovated and improved.

THE GOOSE IS DEAD THAT LAID THE GOLDEN EGG

Detroit, Aug. 7.—Nearly six and one-half million dollars were bet in the rings of the three Windsor tracks during the four meetings of one week each this season.
In almost every figure, the sum wagered in the mutual machines at Devonshire, Windsor Jockey Club and Kenilworth was $6,482,821.
This amount was two and one-half times in excess of the sum raised by general Detroiters for the American Red Cross Fund, which was approximately $2,600,000.
It demonstrates that Detroit and environments is a marvelous betting community, so far as the ponies of the running are concerned.
The amount bet during the two weeks at Devonshire early in the summer was more than $2,000,000, as heretofore published.
At Windsor J.C. at Windsor Jockey Club plant (Hendrie & Farmer), the amount bet during the seven days, as shown by the figures displayed on the board after each race, was $2,877,945, distributed as follows:
July 14 $326,824
July 15 281,569
July 16 308,565
July 17 329,047
July 18 368,582
July 19 401,019
Total (seven days) $2,277,565
At Kenilworth:
The following week at Kenilworth the total amount bet was $1,784,856, a falling off from the preceding week. The slight slump was due to the fact that the Windsor J.C. track is much easier of access than Kenilworth. The Kenilworth distribution was as follows:
July 24 $328,500
July 25 234,512
July 26 267,209
July 27 285,281
July 28 329,047
July 29 247,779
July 30 288,788
Total (seven days) $1,784,856
The amount of money bet at Kenilworth was displayed on the blackboard for the Windsor tracks claim during the four weeks' marvelous flow of coin.
The amount has been variously estimated at from 10 to 20 per cent. According to the estimators, at least 10 per cent. was extracted from the total amount in straight bets at each track.
Hugh Grant Browne, principal owner of Devonshire, admitted that the percentage was correct, so far as his plant was concerned.
The "take-off" on the place and show bets looked to be considerably larger than the amount taken from the straight wagers at each track.
Of this immense profit the Canadian Government received $1250 per day, or $48,000 for the 28 days' racing, paid for by Detroiters and peripatetic Canadians.
This equaled 4 1/2 per cent. of the profit.
It is true the government received a tax of 25 cents for each admission, but this came out of the pockets of the public and did not interfere materially with the profit of the track owners.
The average daily attendance at Devonshire was 4000, according to President Browne, while 6500 or more was the average paid crowd at Windsor J. C. at 5000 at Kenilworth.
It all goes to prove that it takes money to make the mare go these troublesome days.

GERMAN FOREIGN POLICY PUZZLES

Will Von Kuehlman or Helf- ferich Be the Real Director?

Copenhagen, Aug. 7.—Will Dr. von Kuehlmann or Dr. Karl Helfferich, vice-chancellor, be the real director of foreign policy under the imperialistic government of Dr. Michaelis, the German chancellor? This is the political problem of the hour in connection with the shake-up of cabinets in Germany. It is known the versatile Dr. Helfferich desires to have a hand in steering Germany's new course in world politics after the war, and it is rumored that the new chancellor, unacquainted as he is with international affairs, desires to retain the ex-bank director, Dr. Helfferich, as his special adviser and mouthpiece, particularly for this field.
In fact, one of the avowed reasons for Dr. Helfferich's retention, despite his present unpopularity in the reichstag, was that his services are indispensable in peace negotiations.
The Berlin Tageblatt, The Lokal An-zeiger and the Voestische Zeitung all refer to the possibility of a conflict, as Dr. von Kuehlmann, it is understood, is disinclined to permit himself to be relegated to a subordinate place.
Concession to Catholics.
A second feature of the shake-up is the consideration shown the Catholic Centre party, whose demand for representation in the imperial and Prussian cabinets for the Roman Catholic population was recognized by the appointment of three Roman Catholics, Spahn, Waldrath, and Kuehlmann. With a revocation of the anti-Jewish and Polish expropriation laws, also part of the centrist program, that party is considered to have done very well as a result of the parliamentary crisis.
While the Radical and Socialist press is disaffected at the absence of any marked concession to parliamentarism in the new cabinets, and at the failure to consult the reichstag on the appointments, newspapers of the opposite camp are aggravated at the shelving of Dr. Be-seker, Prussian minister of justice.
