RING

The Moran-Cowler Bout

Frank Moran, Pittsburgh heavyweight, regained some of his lost prestige at the Harlem Sporting Club on last Friday night when he knocked out Tom Fowler, a big English boxer, announced as "formerly of England, but now of New York," in the fourth round of what was to have been a ten-round bout. The result coming as a bolt from the clear sky, was one of the most popular ever scored in a local ring, and when Referee Kid McPartland had finished his fatal count of thirty seconds over the fallen Fowler, the house was in an uproar, as the spectators loudly acclaimed Moran.

In point of competition the bout was one of the best seen in New York this season. Both men exchanged blows with a vim. At times Fowler employed his cleverness to jab Moran effectively, and peck openings in the Pittsburgher's faulty guard. Moran's offensive tactics, however, forced Fowler to discard his cleverness and take his chance of exchanging blows, and in this the Englishman lost.

Not so much the manner in which he scored his victory, but the reality that he had won by decisive means, made the large crowd, which witnessed the contest, so enthusiastic. Moran was the under dog from the start of the bout until its untimely finish. He relied principally on his ability to connect with one decisive wallop, his famous "Mury Ann," and in the end it was this blow, a right to the jaw, which won him the victory.

Triumph did not come to the blond Pittsburgh boxer, however, until he had been forced to take a considerable amount of punishment. He showed up in comparatively good condition as regards his physical dimensions, although he entered the ring with a noticeable paunch in front of him. He weighed 201 pounds, fourteen less than his opponent, and at this figure he appeared in good condition.

In the matter of ring ability, however, the Pittsburgher was woefully ineffi-

FEW DROPS AND CORN LIFTS OUT

Says there is no excuse for cutting corns and inviting lockjaw

Sore corns, hard corns, soft corns or any kind of a corn can harmlessly be lifted right out with the fingers if you will apply directly upon the corn a few drops of freezeze, says a Cincinnati authority.

It is claimed that at small cost one can get a quarter of an ounce of freezeze at any drug store, which is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callus without pain or soreness or the danger of infection.

This simple drug, while sticky, dries the moment it is applied and does not inflame or even irritate the surrounding tissue.

This announcement will interest many women here, for it is said that the present high-heeled footwear is putting corns on practically every woman's feet.

Bats Darcy in Louisiana.

Baton Rouge, La., April 16.—"Let Les Darcy follow the noble example of Georges Carpentier before seeking athletic engagements in Louisiana," Governor Pleasant wired to Dominien J. Tortorich, manager of the Louisiana Auditorium at New Orleans, ordering the cancellation of a boxing bout that was scheduled for April 28, between Les Darcy and Jeff Smith.

The cancellation by the governor is the result of his receipt of numerous appeals for cancellation from patriotic patrons throughout the state. The governor's telegram in full to Manager Tortorich follows:

"Please cancel boxing match between Darcy and Smith. Make this request for public good. Let Darcy follow noble example of Georges Carpentier before seeking athletic engagements in Louisiana."

ATHLETIC

Howard Drew Comes Back.

New York, April 14.—Howard Drew, once national sprinting champion, is back in the running today.

In a thrilling race at the Smart Set Athletic Club indoor games here, Drew came back, but not quite enough to beat Andrew B. Kelly, of Holy Cross College, national 300-yard champion. Kelly won an especially arranged 100-yard dash by inches.

The race had to be run twice, for the judges called the first a dead heat. Drew suffered a paralytic stroke last summer.

BOWLING

Many high scores are being made on these alleys and interesting games witnessed. Among the high bowlers are members of battalions quartered in the city. Pte. Whittingham of the 27th Battalion won first prize in last Thursday's competition. While Pte. Cowling of the same battalion was second man on Monday. Drummer Stewart of the 26th Battalion won the prize on Tuesday. With the 27th Battalion are many good bowlers, who, although unaccustomed to candlepins, are making some very good scores.

The following were the prize winners during the past week:—Monday, April

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

Correcting Unshapely Noses

In Paris, the Lancet reports, there is a surgeon who claims success in correcting all ungraceful forms of nose, leaving the skin intact. He classifies unshapely noses into five principal groups—blubby, crooked, saddle-shaped, long and broad. To improve them M. Julian Bourquet operates through the nares under local anaesthesia, separating the skin from the subjacent framework, re-
