STORIES OF THEIPVAL

Instances of Individual Gallantry Recounted—Armored Car Straddles Trench and Protects Impressed Dressing Station Below

(London Times) Special Cable to Telegraph. London, Oct. 2.—Repeating again to the Thiepval battle, the Times correspondent at British headquarters in France, says: "One hears many tales of individual gallantry. An officer of considerable rank set gallantly among ruins of what was once a chateau, directing the operations of a machine gunner with one private whom he had taught how to load a gun. He sat in a shell crater and kept the gun at work all night.

Paris Says That Allies Have Outwitted Enemy

FIRST BIG LEAGUE GAME LIKELY SUNDAY

Chicago, Oct. 2.—President B. B. Johnson of the American League, has left here for New York to join President J. K. Tener of the National League, and Gerry Heermann, chairman of the national committee, of which Tener and Johnson also are members, in making arrangements for the world series.

It is the plan of the commission to start the series on Sunday, Mr. Johnson said, but until the National League race is decided, the place for playing the first game cannot be decided. The National League championship may not be decided until next Thursday, the last day of the season, so close to the race between Brooklyn and Philadelphia. Brooklyn, which today starts a four-game series with Philadelphia, has an advantage of only a fraction of a game. Philadelphia has six games to play yet, all with Boston and as there is now no league, the subject is being decided in its rather frank manner in the press of the allies.
