

Canadians, on Way to Front, Meet Part of Wounded Comrades Unique Experience of Men Sent to Strengthen Patricia—Stories of War Which Reached Salisbury Plain

(By William Marchington, staff correspondent of Toronto Globe.) Salisbury Plain, Jan. 28.—Two days ago a party of fifty members of the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry bound for France had the unusual experience of meeting at an English railway station several of their comrades who had been wounded in the trenches less than thirty-six hours before, and were on their way to a hospital in the north of England.

WHO OWNS WEDDING GIFTS, HUSBAND OR WIFE OR BOTH OF THEM?

New York, Feb. 12.—Whether wedding gifts are the joint property of husband and wife, or can be claimed by either as a personal belonging, is a question which the Appellate Term of the Supreme Court has been called upon to decide. At the same time the court will have to rule on whether the wife has a right to pawn such articles and the husband has the right to redeem the pledge and retain them.

MAJOR ANDERSON WEDS IN ENGLAND Bride is Miss Winter of Moncton—Married Last Month

Friends of Major S. Boyd Anderson of Moncton, who left with the first contingent in charge of one of the New Brunswick batteries, have received word of his marriage in England. The wedding took place on January 27, and the bride was Miss Gladys Winter. The fact of their engagement was generally known among their friends before Major Anderson left, but the wedding came as a surprise.

AMATEUR NIGHT AT OPERA HOUSE

Tonight is Amateur Night at the Opera House. Twelve local aspirants for theatrical fame, as well as the prizes offered by the management of the Young-Adams Co., will appear immediately after the regular performance by the company. There will surely be plenty of fun, but they will also be some of the contestants who have good seats and do it now.

REINSTATEMENT

Three I. C. R. conductors, Messrs. Dickie, of Moncton, and B. Baker and Hopper, of Truro, N. S., have been reinstated in their positions with the railway in the full enjoyment of seniority rights, as when they were set back some time ago.

LOCAL NEWS

Chalet class with orchestra tomorrow night. ACCIDENT Edward Rounseville, checker at Sand Point, had one of his fingers quiet badly lacerated last night while he was working one of the slot machines. He was injured while attending to the Emergency Hospital.

WARNTON TO SMALL BOYS Small boys should stay away from Carmarthen street hill in the evenings. The fact of their engagement was generally known among their friends before Major Anderson left, but the wedding came as a surprise.

POLICE CHANGE Policeman Cowan, who has been on duty in West St. John, will be shifted to the city beat this evening. Policeman Gosselin, who was recently shifted from the North End beat will take over his duties under Sergeant Smith.

TWELVE MORE AUSTRIANS Through the activities of Chief Simpson and policemen, twelve Austrians were rounded up this morning and escorted to the detention camp in Kings Square, where they were turned over to the military authorities. The men are all strangers. They were taken in King's Square, where they were turned over to the military authorities.

SUPERBIE PARTY Mrs. John Moff was pleasantly surprised at her home in Metcalf Extension last night when a party of friends called upon her and as a token of esteem presented her a handsome set of dishes. Harold McKelvie made the presentation.

SATURDAY'S SALE We will give three regular 81 shirts for $2.—Cortez, 124 Union street.

SERIOUS CHARGE Ernest Feltus, a Dane, appeared before Magistrate Ritchie in the police court this morning to answer a serious charge, which involves a woman whom he was married to. The charge was that he had married her while she was still married to another man.

ANONYMOUS CRITICS The Times is in receipt from day to day of anonymous letters, some of which praise the city commissioners and some of which condemn them. It would be the possibility of their being published if the writers would sign their names.

NEW BOOKKEEPING Commissioner Potts is having installed in his office a new set of books to simplify the accounting and at the same time present the information contained therein in a more convenient and more easily understood form.

CORRECTION Morris Guss called at The Times office this morning to say that an item in the effect that he had been arrested for driving on Saturday was incorrect. He was not driving on Saturday nor was he driving, but a minor breach of the regulations for which he was asked to pay $2.

HERSEY-RUSSELL A pretty wedding was solemnized last night at the residence of Rev. Gordon Frank A. Hersey of North End, and Miss Margaret L. Russell, daughter of the late Edward S. Russell of this city. They were attended by Miss Marcella Lawlor as bridesmaid and Charles Dunn as groomsmen.

MARRIAGES HERSEY-RUSSELL—In this city, February 11, by Rev. Gordon Dickie, Frank A. Hersey to Margaret G. L. Russell, both of St. John.

DEATHS CAMPBELL—Suddenly, at his residence, 56 Dorchester street, on the 11th inst., Charles Campbell in the 74th year of his age.

REINSTATEMENT Three I. C. R. conductors, Messrs. Dickie, of Moncton, and B. Baker and Hopper, of Truro, N. S., have been reinstated in their positions with the railway in the full enjoyment of seniority rights, as when they were set back some time ago.

REINSTATEMENT Three I. C. R. conductors, Messrs. Dickie, of Moncton, and B. Baker and Hopper, of Truro, N. S., have been reinstated in their positions with the railway in the full enjoyment of seniority rights, as when they were set back some time ago.

REINSTATEMENT Three I. C. R. conductors, Messrs. Dickie, of Moncton, and B. Baker and Hopper, of Truro, N. S., have been reinstated in their positions with the railway in the full enjoyment of seniority rights, as when they were set back some time ago.

January Furniture Sale at Marcus' 20 to 40% Off

J. MARCUS, 30 Dock Street Store Open Evenings

RECENT DEATHS The death occurred yesterday afternoon of Mrs. Walter Downie, wife of two operations, of Mrs. Walter Downie, who was 67 years of age.

Too Late For Classification FOR SALE—Lot at Fairvale, 80 x 240 5 minutes from station. Write 207 Times.

THE BURNING QUESTION SOLVED

MRS. R. S. LEWIS' HOUSE STRUCK BY A BULLET

GET SEATS TODAY

WAR NOTES The Portuguese foreign minister yesterday reaffirmed that Portugal will cooperate with the allies when it seems necessary.

HONOR FOR CAPT. CAREY Captain R. E. Carey, to whom has just been awarded a gold medal for his services in rescuing 1,800 French and Belgian refugees in the English Channel, is a member of the Imperial Merchant Service Guild.

PARKINSON'S MOTTO "Small Profits—Quick Results"

STEAMER MOVEMENTS The steamer Skulda sailed this afternoon for Santo Domingo, West Indies.

L. L. Sharpe & Son Jewelers and Opticians

USE THE WANT AD. WAX

194 Metcalf Street Phone 938-11