

JARDINE FIRE A COSTLY ONE

Justment on Building Alone Shows $12,997

It is thought in insurance circles that the fire loss in the Jardine building will be $80,000 or upwards. The arbitrators in the loss on the building itself called in James Myles as umpire, and settled the adjustment at $12,997.

Those to whom nature has given extra good vision are apt to be rather proud of it, and nearly always are it.

The commonest plume we hear are regrets for impaired sight, which was once much above the average.

Good vision is priceless. Health, happiness and prosperity depend upon it, yet our eyes are being persistently ill-treated and little attention is given to preserve their usefulness.

The symptoms of eye-strain should be heeded.

SUCCESSFUL BUTTON DAY

New Brunswick Women's Institutes so Far Have Returns of $1,225.36

The New Brunswick Women's Institutes held a very successful "button-campaign" on Empire Day.
Allied for friends and relatives present, the proceeds were performed by Rev. R. S. Crisp.
The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was prettily attired in a Belgian blue traveling suit with hat of a corresponding shade and trimmed with opulent and carried a bouquet of Killarney roses.
Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan left on the P. R. at 12:55 on a honeymoon trip to P. E. Island on which they will be away about three weeks.
Both are very popular about the city. The bride has been an efficient member of the "Telegraph-Times" business office staff, and as a slight mark of the esteem in which she was held by her associates there, she was the recipient of a handsome fumed oak table cabinet and fumed oak tray. The groom is secretary and treasurer of W. E. McLayne, Ltd., and included among the many other handsome remembrances which they received was a substantial check from Mr. McIntyre, head of the firm, and a case of silver from the firm and employees.
Hearst wishes for happiness and prosperity in their married life will follow the bride and groom from a large circle of friends.
Robson-Milne
A wedding of interest to friends in the city and elsewhere took place last evening when Miss Annie Jackson Milne became the bride of William Frederick Robson.
The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. F. Scovill, pastor of St. Jude's church, at the home of the groom's father, Wm. Robson, West St. John, in the presence of only immediate relatives. The bride has been a popular teacher in the Salvation Army and has been stationed in several places in Canada. They will make their home in this city.
Robertson-Retalick
A pretty wedding took place at four o'clock this afternoon in the Carlton Methodist church, when Rev. Calvin H. E. Thomas united in marriage James L. Robertson, accountant of the Ames Holden McCready Co., and Miss Nettie Retalick, daughter of John Retalick, and organist of Calvin Presbyterian church.
The bride was attended by Miss Nellie O'Brien, who wore a pretty costume of rose corded silk with leghorn hat trimmed with velvet. Following the wedding a tempting breakfast was served at the bride's home, Mill street, after which Mr. and Mrs. McCann left on a honeymoon trip to Boston. On their return they will reside in Mill street. Many substantial nuptial remembrances were received from friends.
McCann-Driscoll
The wedding of Miss Annie Geraldine Driscoll to Robert McCann took place this morning at 10 o'clock in the presence of friends and relatives. The bride was nicely dressed in Belgian blue silk with black hat trimmed with Belgian colors. She was assisted by Miss Nellie O'Brien, who wore a pretty costume of rose corded silk with leghorn hat trimmed with velvet. Following the wedding a tempting breakfast was served at the bride's home, Mill street, after which Mr. and Mrs. McCann left on a honeymoon trip to Boston. On their return they will reside in Mill street. Many substantial nuptial remembrances were received from friends.

NEW PATRIOTIC SONG The Times has received a copy of a new patriotic song, "The Star of Hope," by Mrs. W. Robinson of Hampton, and is sentimental in its nature, pertaining to a lad who joined the colors. Mr. Crawford, who is choir master in St. Luke's church, is only seven years of age, but has won much favorable comment on his composition. It is a stirring and inspiring martial song, making it most acceptable for a piano solo.

POLICE COURT

In the police court this morning Fred McAfee, arrested yesterday on charge of begging from door to door in Spring street, was remanded.

One man arrested on a drunkenness charge was also remanded.

A case against Frank Van Hedgegan was taken up. He was reported by Inspector Jones for keeping liquor on his beer licensed premises, Britain street. He pleaded not guilty. Mr. Jones testified that he went to the house and there found two valves containing twenty-five bottles of liquor. He seized them and reported the defendant.

Two Belgians testified, one that he owned the liquor and intended to take it to his home in Minto this morning. He swore it was for his father and was for his own use, and not to be resold. He told her he had procured the liquor, and said that his uncle, the defendant, had nothing to do with it. His friend corroborated his statements.

Magistrate Ritchie said he felt convinced that the witnesses had spoken the truth, and that the defendant had not intended to violate the law, and therefore he was loath to impose a fine. According to the wording of the law no beer license can keep liquor on his premises. As Urie Swanson, who appeared on behalf of the defendant, contended that his client did not keep it there, and that the owner would have removed it in a short time, he said everything hinged on the word "keep." The magistrate reserved judgment.

Interment took place in the new Catholic cemetery.
The funeral of Mrs. Mary Tierney took place this afternoon to the Cathedral where burial services were conducted by Rev. Miles F. Howard. In addition to relatives already mentioned as surviving is one brother, Louis Train.
The funeral of James Ingraham took place this afternoon from his late residence, City road. Burial services were conducted in St. Paul's church by Rev. G. H. Alder, and interment took place in Cedar Hill.
SOUVENIRS OF WAR. Some interesting souvenirs of the war have been received by E. J. Wall of King Square, and have attracted much interest. Among them is a small hand-mirrored, taken from the knapsack of a Irish soldier. While small, it is particularly heavy, with very thick glass, and on its wooden frame are several inscriptions of a Turkish character. Mr. Wall also has a ship's biscuit from the steamer Calcedonia, on which is written "S. S. Calcedonia, April 23, 1915, first ship to land troops at the Dardanelles." Besides these he has some shells of the different nations.

The Gifts The Bride Likes Best
When you purchase a wedding present let it be an expression of your thoughtfulness as well as your appreciation of the beautiful. Remember the gifts the bride likes best are those which combine real utility with good taste and refinement.
She is most anxious that her equipment for entertaining be complete, for at the very beginning of married life come receptions, luncheons and dinners. The call for the articles of Silver and Glassware necessary for correct serving comes early.
At Sharpe's wants of this nature are anticipated, the variety of patterns, shapes and finishes affording opportunity to choose those you know the bride will like.
