WARREN L. GRAY ELECTED HEAD OF Y. M. C. I. BOARD

Succeeds J. P. Coughlin as President of Cliff Street
Institution

DEPARTMENT HEADS FOR YEAR SELECTED

First Forty-Fives Party of Season Enjoyed Last Evening

The Young Men's Catholic Institute is off to a good start on its winter program with the selection of its department heads for the year. These were chosen last night from the members of the board of management who were elected at a meeting of the Institute members on last Sunday afternoon. Warren L. Gray, manager of the North End branch of the Provincial Bank, heads the executive of the "Y" as the new president, succeeding Joseph P. Coughlin, who has carried on with excellent success as president for several terms and has borne much of the work of direction of the Institute affairs during that time. Mr. Coughlin remains on the board in charge of one of the departments.

THE NEW BOARD.

Mr. Gray, the new president, has been the financial secretary of the "Y" and has given good service during his time in office. He has a strong board of conferees to handle the business in the year just opening, most of them men who have taken close interest in the carrying out of the work of the Cliff Street institution. The new vice-president is James L. Sugrue, financial secretary, David Colgan, recording secretary, Lawrence Oram, treasurer, William L. Walsh, chairman of the literary and dramatic committee, A. C. D. Wilson, chairman of the physical committee, Harold McManus, chairman of the rooms and social committee, Joseph P. Coughlin, marshal, William Kelly, Rev. Joseph Floyd is the deputy interested spiritual director.

PLANS DISCUSSED.

Plans were gone into last evening in connection with the various activities. These will be developed by the chairman and the men they will assemble around them as members of their committees. Included among the early activities will be the matter of increased membership. There have been several improvements made in the plant since the institute closed for the summer, among them the rearrangement of the front lobby, where a section has been neatly arranged as an office in charge of Mr. Martin. The bowling alleys are in use and other features of the "Y" program will soon be commanding attention. During the world baseball series detailed play in the baseball classic was given before large numbers of pleased spectators by means of a large action board supplementing accounts of the games received in the large gymnasium by special wire.

FIRST CARD PARTY.

The Tuesday forty-fives parties were begun last evening with attendance for some 40 tables. Good games were enjoyed and excellent prizes contested for. These were won as follows: Ladies, first, Miss Gussie McGrath, set of Lincolns; second, Mrs. P. J. Fitzpatrick; third, Miss Loretta Concus; gentlemen, first, P. L. Jennings, a nice hat; second, John Hanlon; third, Arthur Roy. Miss McGrath had made the high count of 18 out of 20 games. Mr. Jennings and

AUDIT BUREAU MEET OPENS NEXT WEEK

Thirtieth Annual Convention of Circulation Body to be Held in Chicago

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—Finishing touches are now being put on the preparations for the 18th annual convention of the Audit Bureau of Circulations, a co-operative organization which has for its object the verification of the circulation of newspapers and periodicals, which opens here next week.

The bureau was established in the fall of 1913 after the Association of American Advertisers had failed in an effort to establish such an organization because of inadequate service through lack of funds. It was then that the three factors in newspaper advertising—the advertisers themselves, the advertising agents and the publishers got together and formed an organization to achieve the object which each factor individually desired.

Through this bureau, it was agreed, the advertiser, when buying space in a publication, would be in a position to ascertain what he was buying and the publisher would be able to satisfy his customers as to what he was selling. A board of control was instituted in which the majority vote was allowed to rest in the hands of the advertiser members.

TO INDUCTION SERVICE

Rev. W. M. Townsend of the St. Columba church, Fairville, will leave tomorrow morning for St. Stephen, to preside at the induction of Rev. George S. Mitchell, called to the St. Stephen Presbyterian Church from Summerside, P. E. I. The service will take place tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. Rev. J. Garrow Berry will give the charge to the newly inducted minister. Rev. Arthur J. Beck of Woodstock will address the congregation.

Miss Gladys L. Titus, 123 Chesley street, has returned home, after spending her vacation with her sister, Mrs. C. A. Johnson, Quincy, Mass.

Mr. Hanlon tied with 16, and the former won the play-off in a close contest. The door prize, a gold piece, went to Mrs. J. McFay. Dainty refreshments were served by a committee of young ladies.

PRINCE TO WED SPAIN INFANTA, LONDON REPORT

Renovation of Marlborough House for Residence Is Resumed

New York Evening Post Foreign Service
Supplied to Canadian Press

LONDON, Oct. 12.—The Prince of Wales is going to marry at last, and the future Queen of England is the Infanta Beatrice of Spain.

No official announcement has been made except that the work of renovating Marlborough House has been resumed and that the Prince is going to occupy it, but to those who are on the inside of court affairs this signals the approaching momentous event.

The discussion of the prospective marriage, it is now known, was the chief object of King Alfonso's visit to England last summer. The present plans, according to reliable authority, are that the prince, after spending Christmas with his parents at Sandringham Palace, will make an official visit to Madrid. The engagement will then be announced and the marriage will take place a few months later.

FAVORITE AT PALACE.

The young Spanish princess is a great favorite at Buckingham Palace. She is 18 years old and a Roman Catholic. During the prince's recent holiday in Biarritz he motored across the border to San Sebastian especially to see the Spanish sovereigns and his future bride, but only his closest intimates had knowledge of the courtship.

DENIED AT MADRID.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—The report that the Prince of Wales would be betrothed to Princess Beatrice of Spain, which was revived in cables today concerning renovation of Marlborough House, was circulated by gossips here some weeks ago, and evoked an official denial from the Spanish government's spokesman in Madrid on September 30.

COBURG STREET W. M. S.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Coburg street Christian church held its monthly meeting last evening at the home of Mrs. W. Laskey, Spring street, last night with Mrs. W. J. Johnston, president, in the chair. Following a brief business session there was an interesting discussion on "The Rural Church," conducted by Mrs. P. Coggins, divisional leader. Miss Lyla Hoyt, Mrs. Coggins, Mrs. John H. Hoyt, Mrs. H. H. Gillis took part in the discussion. An offering of $13.20 was contributed by the members for mission work. Refreshments were served by the hostess and a social hour was enjoyed.

BIBLE STORIES IN FAMOUS PAINTINGS

Illustrated Lecture by Rev. A. H. Crowfoot to Sunday School Teachers

An illustrated lecture by Archdeacon A. H. Crowfoot on "Bible Stories as Told by Great Artists" given last evening at the season's opening meeting of the Saint John Denery Sunday School Teachers' Association was greatly appreciated by the large number present. There was an attendance of between 60 and 70, representative of all the Anglican Sunday schools of the city and immediate vicinity. J. N. Rogers, president, was in the chair. Archdeacon Crowfoot showed beautiful lantern slides of famous paintings including some by Michael Angelo, Rembrandt, Holman Hunt and others. Each of the paintings shown, Archdeacon Crowfoot carefully explained, pointing out to the teachers the pictures' special inspiration for scholars.

KING'S DAUGHTERS' MEETING.

The Door-keepers Circle of The King's Daughters held its first meeting of the season yesterday at the residence of Mrs. E. R. Corbitt, Duke street, with Mrs. J. William Hart, president, in the chair. Plans were made for the winter activities and a social half hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Miss Gertrude Campbell, Germain street.

BANQUET STARTS SOCIETY'S SEASON

Y. P. A. of Queen Square United Church Has Session of Interest

The Young Peoples' Association of the Queen Square United Church opened its season last evening with a banquet in the church parlor. Charles P. Todd, president of the association, was in the chair, and gave the opening address in which he outlined the plans for the year. The pastor of the church, Rev. H. C. Rice, spoke of the valuable services the association had given the church. He said that it meant much in the life of the young people and also drew attention to the inspiration to be received from the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the church, which will be on October 24. Clayton Teed, ex-president, also referred to the activities of the organization. At a business session plans were perfected for the raising of funds which the society contributes to the church.

On motion of Kenneth E. MacLaughlin, a vote of thanks was rendered the ladies. The arrangements for the banquet were in charge of Mrs. Lelloy King and Miss Margaret Irvine.

BEACON LIGHT CLASSES.

A meeting of the Beacon Light Class was held last evening at the home of Mrs. Samuel Naves, Chesley street, with the president, Mrs. W. E. Hamm, presiding. After scripture reading, prayer was offered by Mrs. Boyd. Reports were received and plans were made for a donation of money and presents for the Children's Aid in Garden street, for Christmas. Several quilts were sold. Music was enjoyed, and dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. Ryder. Those present were: Mrs. H. King, Mrs. W. E. Hamm, Mrs. J. Ryder, Mrs. R. Gould, Mrs. E. Arbo, Mrs. J. Spaine, and also a visitor, Mrs. S. Corkum.

AUTO STRIKES DEER.
Becoming dazed by the headlights of a Westfield-Saint John bus, driven by Leonard Lehey, about 12 o'clock Monday night, a deer was struck by the car and its hind legs broken. Driver Lehey stopped the bus, a rifle was obtained from a nearby farm house and the deer was shot.

FATHER IS BLAMED

Inquest Held Into Death of Woodstock Boy

WOODSTOCK, Oct. 12.—At the inquest held here this evening before Coroner John Lindsay at the town hall, into the cause of death of a 17-year-old Leonard Todd, who died last night at the Fisher Hospital shortly after being found on the lawn in front of his home, the Riverside Hotel, with severe wounds about the neck, alleged to have been inflicted by his father, Chesley Todd, who following the alleged attack, is said to have slashed his own throat. The jury brought in a verdict basing young Todd's death as being inflicted by shock and hemorrhage resulting from wounds inflicted by a razor in the hands of his father, Chesley Todd.

Safeguard your health

4 out of 5 needlessly suffer

Neglect teeth and gums, and you open wide the door to Pyorrhea. That is the reason why four out of five after forty (and many younger) suffer its dread effects, paving the way to serious sickness.

So unnecessary! With reasonable care, you need never fear the ravages of Pyorrhea. Make it a rule to see your dentist twice a year. And start using Forhan's for the Gums, today.

Forhan's used in time, prevents Pyorrhea or checks its course. It firms the gums and keeps them healthy. It protects teeth against decay-causing acids and keeps them white.

Ask your dentist about Forhan's. It is the formula of
R. J. Forhan, D. D. S., and contains Forhan's Pyorrhea
Liquid.

Start using Forhan's regularly morning and night.
Teach your children this habit. Get a tube today! At all druggists, 35c and 60c.

No tell-tale after-odor
Forhan's Antiseptic, a new product, most powerful, safe antiseptic mouthwash known, has no tell-tale odor of its own. Keeps you safe from whitening toothpastes.
Pleasant, refreshing. Try it.
