Tariff Policies of Two Big Parties Held to Differ
But Little

Canadian Press Despatch.
LONDON, Oct. 30.—"Nine cabinet ministers of Canada defected." This is the legend appearing on more than one newspaper contents bill on the streets of London tonight. London has indeed awakened rather tardily to the importance of the Canadian elections. The absence of any clear-cut imperial issue was doubtless responsible for the comparative lack of interest in the earlier stages of the contest, notwithstanding the fact that leading papers for some weeks carried numerous special articles concerning the campaign.

H.P. SAUCE

Excellent with ham and bacon.
Contains no preservatives.

Canadians here all along hesitated to express prophecies. It was felt at this distance, despite the most copious newspaper cables, impossible to prognosticate with any degree of certainty the trend of the election.
Lord Beaverbrook's Standard tonight says that Premier Mackenzie King has recently been subjected to violent and unfair attacks by another London newspaper, and that these attacks seem to have been dictated by American influences calculated to give the British public the impression that Premier King possessed anti-imperial proclivities.
The Standard declares that this idea is quite erroneous and never had any foundation in fact. Mr. King is a man of the very highest character and of strict integrity, says the paper, which remarks that the same might be said of Mr. Meighen.

TWO LEADERS PRAISED.
"The Dominion is highly fortunate at this juncture," says the Standard, "in having as leaders men whose lives and actions discourage the baser side of politics. Mr. Meighen has also had to suffer some quite unjustified detraction in this country. He was the minister of the late government of Sir Robert Borden who negotiated the agreement whereunder the Grand Trunk Railway was taken over." The Standard thinks the election may involve the retirement of Hon. P.

C. Larkin from the Canadian High Commissionership in London, and says this "would be greatly regretted both in London and Ottawa." The paper adds some complimentary references to Hon. Mr. Larkin's work here.

CLOSER CONTACT SEEN.

Lord Rothermere's Evening News claims that there will be closer contact between Canada and the Mother Country than has obtained under the Mackenzie King administration. There may be an increase in the British preference, The News says, and adds:
"Canada will protect her own interests first and Great Britain's second." The Evening News claims that the outcome of the Dominion general election is partly due to the unsatisfactory position of the Canadian National Railways. The paper notes that while the income tax in Canada is regarded by Canadians as high, it is only about one-fourth that of Britain. There is a feeling abroad, the Evening News says, that Canada has been dilatory in her immigration policy.

LITTLE CHOICE IN TARIFFS.
So far as tariffs are concerned, there is little to choose between the two main political parties, according to the Evening News. Canada does not like to see the encroachment of American interests in the Dominion, it says, and adds: "Canadian labor probably is the soundest in the Empire. It is loyal and is opposed to 'Red' influence and it does not exercise such restrictions as exist elsewhere."

ELECTIONS' MOTIVES.
The Westminster Gazette says the Conservatives won their seats in the Dominion election yesterday chiefly at the cost of the Progressive Party, which is now one-third of its size in the last parliament. This has caused a definite swing to the Conservative side that the Gazette wonders what have been the motives of the electors, scattered over such a large area, and says the motives are difficult to understand.

The Gazette says that no doubt the taxation, which is regarded by Canadians as heavy, has had some weight in the result of the vote. But Mr.
Meighen's advocacy of high tariff has had much more effect upon the electors.
"Probably, however, the more vague desire to have a change of government," the Gazette adds, "has had as much influence as any other factor in the result."

SAYS LIBERAL BLOW.

The Daily Mail commenting on the result of the election says it has been a heavy blow to the Liberals now in office.
"The day is long past," it declares, "when a Canadian election could affect the relations between the Dominions and this country. Both the Liberals and Conservatives in Canada, are equally loyal to the Empire and equally determined to maintain Canadian independence in her domestic affairs.
That is the policy which we in Britain understand and respect. The Liberal defeats are to be explained by the period of bad trade, through which Canada has been passing. The Conservatives have advocated a higher tariff, which would give Canadian industries better protection against United States dumping and it appears that the country agrees with the Conservatives. Canadians have never believed in the wisdom of Cobdenism.
The Liberals have been reluctant to raise the tariff and they have suffered in consequence."

FUTURE ASSURED.
"The future of Canada is assured," concludes the Daily Mail. "Her territory is one of the richest in the world, and as the world fills up, it will attract an ever increasing population. The harvest this year, is excellent and if taxation can be lowered, it is safe to prophesy that the prosperity which she knew before the war, will be eclipsed by her progress in the immediate future."

Under the heading: "A Stalemate in Canada," the Daily Telegraph states that the result of the election for Hon. Mr. Meighen and his supporters is especially disappointing.
"They have more than doubled the number of Conservative seats in the last House of Commons," it says, "and they have defeated no fewer than eight members of the Liberal cabinet, and now find themselves solely on account of the existence of a very small third party, practically equalled in voting strength in the new House of Commons, by the two parties, which however they may differ among themselves, are above all anti-Conservative.

It is a bitter ending for the tale of sweeping individual victories won by Mr. Meighen's supporters. Whether he will consent to form a ministry is, at the time of writing, uncertain, but a ministry so formed must be in daily peril."

Social Notes of Interest

Mrs. Harold G. Ellis was hostess yesterday afternoon and early evening at her home at Rosedale, at one of the merriest of many Halloween parties given this season. Her little girls, Miss Marjorie and Miss Audrey Ellis, were hostesses for their little girl friends and their brothers, Master Fenwick and Master Harold Ellis kept score for the contest games of which there were a great variety. The boys invited their friend Pat Scandlers from the city to assist them in their score keeping for the girls.
The children enjoying this unique party were: From the city, Deborah Barbour, Constance Mullin, Roberta Paterson and Sallie Turnbull; from Rosedale, Catherine Robinson, Mary Fink, Charlotte and Jane Crosby, Jean Stetson, Elizabeth Lewin, Barbara Sayre, Louis Allison, Octavia Mc-Intyre, Emmy McNeil, Virginia

Miss Harriet Vincent was hostess again at a bridge of nine tables, yesterday afternoon, at her home, 5 Garden street, having entertained at a bridge of five tables previously. Hon. Patricia

Stylish "Bobs"

Easy to Keep Thick, Wavy, Lustrous

Girls! Try this! When combing and brushing your hair, just moisten your hair brush with a little "Danderine" and brush it through your hair. The effect is startling! You can dress your hair immediately and it will appear twice as thick and heavy, an abundant of glossy, wavy hair, sparkling with life, incomparably soft, fresh, youthful.
Besides beautifying the hair, a 35-cent bottle of refreshing, fragrant "Danderine" from any drug or toilet counter will do wonders, particularly if the hair is dry, thin, brittle, faded or streaked with gray from constant curling and waving which burn the color, lustre and very life from any woman's hair.

The guest of Miss Vincent, was the guest of honor as on the other occasion.
Those assisting in serving at the tea were Mrs. W. F. Rowley, Mrs. J.
Gordon Johnson, Mrs. Frank Robertson, Mrs. A. P. Paterson and Miss Hilda Shaw. The prizes at bridge were won by Mrs. Stanley B. Smith, Miss Hortense Maher, Miss Agatha Kelly and Miss Katherine Disbrow.
A guest who was cordially welcomed by the ladies, was Mrs. J. P. Byrne, of Bathurst, who all were delighted to hear, is coming with Mr. Justice Byrne to reside at the Royal Hotel for the winter.
Miss Vincent entertained informally in the evening at a dinner bridge for a small party of friends.

Mrs. W. H. Shaw, and her daughter, Miss Hilda Shaw, have invitations out for a tea at their residence, Germain street, on next Thursday afternoon, from 4 to 6 o'clock. They will entertain at a bridge later in the week.
Miss Dorothy Evans is entertaining at a tea and reception in honor of Inspector and Mrs. G. J. Marr at their home, Bentley street.
Mrs. H. Colby Smith is entertaining at a bridge this afternoon at her home, Germain street.

2 tablespoons sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, nutmeg and vanilla.

to boiling point. Add sugar and salt to beaten egg. Pour over them gradually scalded milk, flavor to taste, pour in custard cup. Bake in deep pan and pour boiling water around until it nearly reaches top of cups. Bake in moderate oven about twenty minutes.

fuls water, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cupful sugar, 3 eggs, 1 1/2 tablespoons granulated gelatine, 1 tablespoon vanilla stand in the milk for five minutes, then scald the mixture. Combine egg yolks, sugar and salt with the scalded milk, and cook until slightly thickened like a custard. Then stir mixture into egg whites beaten stiff add vanilla.
Turn into individual moulds which have been dipped in cold water and when set, unmould and serve with light cream, or preserved fruit.

well cooked, pitted prunes, 1/2 cupful granulated sugar, 1/2 teaspoon butter, 2 egg whites, 1/2 cupful Combine the prunes, milk, granulated sugar and butter in a shallow baking dish. Make a meringue of the two egg whites and powdered sugar, spread it over prunes, place in very slow oven; bake thirty to twenty minutes, when milk will be absorbed by prunes and the meringue a delicate brown.
