INDIANAPOLIS WANTS BOUT.

May Bid for Dempsey-Willis Ten-Round, No-Decision Match.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 18.—A group of Indianapolis business men are considering making an offer to stage a ten-round no-decision bout between Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, and Harry Wills, negro challenger, in this city, according to J. L. Baugh, a representative of Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, is here for a conference concerning the bout, Baugh said.

In sporting circles the possibilities of holding such a bout here are said to be problematical, it being recalled that Governor McCray has expressed his opposition to prizefights, and on Labor Day last year he refused to permit the bout between Dempsey and Bill Brennan at Michigan City, Ind.
