It is expected that further postponement of the hearing into the injunction application of the N. B. Power Company, Ltd., to restrain the city from entering into competition with the company respecting the distribution of electrical energy, will be asked for at the season of the Chancery division when the case comes before the next week. Dr. J. E. M. Baxter, K.C., the city solicitor, at present is attending the sessions of Parliament and it is not definitely known whether he will come down this week for the case. It is understood that the Federal House will prosecute the latter part of this month.

William Thomas, while playing at his home in Erin street yesterday afternoon, fell and sustained a fracture of the right leg. He was taken to the hospital.
