The Evening Chit-Chat

By BOTH CAMERON

THERE is a little girl in our street who, in the possession of a tiny little pony cart, by reason of this cart she is, of course, the envy and admiration of almost every child in town.

Play is the work we do that isn't compulsory.

fact, a statesman who has held the office of grand vizier for a few years, is always eager to resign it voluntarily, so as to escape more critical methods of criticism...

A Risky Job During the 800 years that the imperial house of Osman has occupied the throne in Constantinople, there have been no less than 239 grand viziers. Of these, only twenty-four are on record as having died a natural death, and thirty-six of them were publicly executed.
