

GUNNABELL'S NOVA (13) SCOTIA ALMANAC.

The vine, Satan attended and sacrificed a sheep, a lion, an ape, and a sow. These animals were to symbolise the graduation of inebriety. When a man begins to drink he is meek and ignorant as the lamb; then becomes bold as the lion; his courage is soon transformed into the foolishness of the ape; and at last he wallows in the mire like a sow.

A Hard Name.—A man named Stone exclaimed in a crowd, "I'll bet I have the hardest name in the company." "Done," said one of the company; "what's your name?" "Stone," cried the first "Hand me the money," said the other, "my name is Harder."

Bethel, an Irish barrister, was the opposing counsel in a cause in which McNally, the celebrated witty barrister, was employed. Bethel made several rude personal observations on McNally, who, on that account, interrupted his opponent in his speech. Bethel, vexed at this, at last exclaimed, "Brother McNally, you have taken the liberty of forcing your remarks in the middle of my statement, and have several times broken the thread of my discourse."—"Brother Bethel," said McNally, "why didn't you wax it better." Bethel's father had been a shoemaker, and his son was ashamed of him.

The three most difficult things are, to keep a secret, to forget an injury, and to make good use of one's leisure.

"Do you ever see any of the popular novels?" said a city dame to a country cousin. "No, ma'am, but plenty of pop-lar trees."

"Yours is a very hard case," as the monkey said to the oyster.

What kind of a face should an auctioneer have? A face that is forbidding.

"I see you're on the watch," as the thief said to the guard chain.

After the younger Mr. Pitt had made his speech in the House of Commons, Sir Robert Walpole, in a sarcastic tone, remarked:—

"I apprehend the young gentleman by the dairy utensils not being kept thoroughly clean. Soda produces the same results when added to the culinary greases—as drippings, lard, &c.

CURE FOR SCRATCHES ON HORSES.—Feed a horse on one or two tablespoonfuls of sulphur per day, (in order to cleanse his blood,) for three or four days, wash the feet in clean, soft water, then put on
