

jurisdiction the offence was committed, to be dealt with according to law. 32-33 V., c. 27, S. 4.

5. If any person apprehended for having committed any such offence refuses to disclose his name and place of abode to the justice of the peace before whom he is brought, such person shall be immediately delivered over to a constable or other peace officer, and shall by him be conveyed to the common gaol or place of confinement for the district, county or place within which the offence was committed, or in which the offender was apprehended, there to remain for any term not exceeding one month, or until he makes known his name and place of abode to the said justice. 32-33 V., c. 27.

6. No prosecution for any such offence shall be brought, except within three months next after the commission of the offence. 32-33 V., C. 27, S. 6.

7. Every pecuniary penalty recovered with respect to any such offence shall be applied in the following manner, that is to say: One moiety thereof to the corporation of the city, town, village, township, parish or place in which the offence was committed, and the other moiety, with full costs, to the person who informed and prosecuted for the same, or to such other person as to the justices of the peace seems proper. 32-33 Vic., C. 27, S. 8.

THE CONVEYANCE OF CATTLE.

8. No railway company within Canada, whose railway forms any part of a line of road over which cattle are conveyed from one Province to another Province, or from the United States to or through any Province, or from any part of a Province to another part of the same, or owner or master of any vessel carrying or transporting cattle from one Province to another Province, or within any Province, or from the United States through or to any Province, shall confine the same in any car or vessel of any description, for a longer period than twenty-eight consecutive hours, without unloading the same for rest, water and feeding for a period of at least five consecutive hours, unless prevented from so unloading and furnishing water and food by storm or other unavoidable cause, or by necessary delay or detention in the crossing of trains.

2. In reckoning the period of confinement, the time during which the cattle have been confined without such rest and without the furnishing of food and water, on any connecting railways or vessels from which they are received, whether in the United States or in Canada, shall be included;

3. The foregoing provisions as to cattle being unladen shall not apply when cattle are carried in any car or vessel in which they have proper space and opportunity for rest and proper food and water. 38 V., C. 42, SS. 2 and 5, part —.

9. Cattle so unloaded shall be properly fed and watered during such rest by the owner or person having the custody thereof, or in case of his default in so doing, then by the Railway Company or owner or master of the vessel transporting the same, at the expense of the owner or person in custody thereof; and such company, owner or master shall in such case have a lien upon such cattle for food, care and custody furnished, and shall not be liable for any detention of such cattle. 38 V., C. 42, S. 3.

10. Where cattle are unladen from cars for the purpose of receiving food, water and rest, the Railway Company then having charge of the cars in which they have been transported shall, except during a period of frost, clean the floors of such cars, and litter the same properly with clean sawdust or sand before re-loading them with live stock. 38 V., C. 42, S. 4.

11. Every Railway Company, owner or master of a vessel, having cattle in transit as aforesaid, who knowingly and wilfully fails to comply with the provisions contained in the eighth section of this Act, shall, for every such failure to comply with its provisions, incur a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars. 38 V., C. 42, S. 5, part.

12. Every peace officer and constable may, at all times, enter any premises where he has reasonable grounds for supposing that any car, truck or vehicle, in respect whereof any company or person has failed to comply with the provisions of the four sections next preceding is to be found, or enter on board any vessel in respect
