

etc., and the third on the life of the missionary or missionaries working there.

Literary subjects to be divided as most suitable, the papers not to occupy more than one hour and a-half, leaving half an hour for discussion.

The success of this course is shown by the very interesting lectures delivered, and the Committee congratulate themselves on the increased interest taken by the young men.

The following was the programme :—

Dec. 8th.—“Formosa, and the life of Mackay the Missionary	{	Mr. E. B. Busteed, B.C.L. Mr. A. F. Mitchell. Rev. J. Barclay, M.A.
Dec. 22nd.—“Stanley’s Expedition, and its results.”	{	Mr. P. W. McLagan, “ Alex. Ross, “ John Fair.
Feb. 9th.—“The North-West, British Columbia, and their missions.”	{	Mr. Robt. Frew, “ A. P. Procter, “ A. E. Jerdan.
Feb. 16th.—“The inhabitants of India & their customs. The Empire of Japan.”	{	Mr. G. R. Kinloch, “ W. M. Byers.
March 9th.—“The Australian Aborigines. A trip to Australia.”	{	Mr. Alex. McFee, “ Wm. Smaill.
Mar. 23rd.—“Indian Missions.” (Open to the Congregation	{	Mr. James Croil.

In addition to the usual social at the opening of the season, which, thanks to the assistance of the ladies of the Congregation, was very successful, a Ballad Concert was held on May 11th, the proceeds being in aid of the North-West Missions, which netted $65.52. We are greatly indebted to Mr. Robinson, and those ladies and gentlemen who so kindly took part.

The Association is able this year to give $135.00 to the North-West Missions, and remain free of debt.
