

ceived Mr.
nted Garu
iddell's act he had re-
of the Nova-pository has year, with a
ole Society;
Society, and accounts as e and other
given gratui-
pears by his
and in your not refrain at nd members
ho' they are
f money, yet
according to
ich the good religion are ociety, it ap-
ry quarter of ed.

IL 3, 1821.

r to the accept-
of my history
ty. Sincerely
utions will bed effects which

OWEN.

ER, 23, 1822.

t week; I was
r. Dickson, our ive a complete
e first that was limits, the Dis-
nts. A Society, nderry and On-
wiacke likewise
r boundaries of
ur own township
h is the present
cannot carry

liberal devices into effect. I do not think that you have any conception of the difficulty we have in procuring a single dollar. On this account a motion was made at our last meeting and carried into effect, to have Boxes put up at the doors of the Meeting House, with the words Bible Society incised, and a hole in the lid; that those who were unable to subscribe might have an opportunity of contributing their mite towards the support of the noble cause. Every Sabbath we collect more or less in this manner, and by the time the year comes round the amount will be considerable. This scheme I would recommend to the imitation of others. Being unable to do much in this glorious work, we had no inclination to obtrude ourselves on the public, and till you solicited it we did not send a list of our subscribers, but only the amount collected; and this will account for the omission of a collection from Onslow, referred to in a letter published in your last report. Onslow then belonged to our society, and although we did not mention what part of the funds was raised by them, neither did we say what part of them was collected in Truro. The aggregate only was forwarded. The object of the British and Foreign Bible Society, is grand and interesting, its labours abundant, and its success beyond all calculation. It has made discoveries which are both painful and delightful. It has formed a common centre for Christians of every name. There they can meet without suspicion, they deliberate without contention, they co-operate without envy. Here the Prince of Princes has erected his standard, and from hence he sends forth his messengers of peace to the surrounding nations. Hail blessed era! It is the commencement of a period which will have a glorious issue. The kingdoms of the world shall become the kingdoms of our Lord and of his Christ. The friends of the Bible are accelerating the event, and when it is fully accomplished, none of them whether on earth or in heaven, will regret any exertions they made to bring it forward. Blessed be the Lord God of peace and let the whole earth be filled with his glory, Amen.

I am Rev. dear Sir,

Yours in sincerity,

JOHN WADDEL, President T. B. Society.

HORTON, FEB. 13, 1822.

REV. DEAR SIR,

I have the pleasure to inform you, that on the 11th instant a number of the inhabitants of this Township Assembled, and revived the Horton Branch Bible Society, and I am in hopes we shall do better in future than heretofore.—I shall be able in a few days, I expect, to send you a list of Subscribers and our Treasurer will remit what is in fund and what can be collected, without delay.

Yours truly,

ELISHA WOODWORTH, Secy.

Rev. J. ROBSON,

Secy. to the Nova Scotia Bible Society.

DORCHESTER, JAN. 23, 1822.

REV. AND DEAR SIR,

I received your favour of the 2d inst. and am sorry to inform you that our Anniversary Bible Society has ceased to exist, since the date of our last remittance. Last year I used every exertion in my power to unite the wrecks of it, into an association that might last till better times; but to no purpose, I doubt not that some of the members had become tired of it, but I am satisfied that the great majority of them have withdrawn in consequence of the general distress of the times, which presses with peculiar severity on a recent settlement,