C. L. Pearson, general agent for the Savyer-Massey Co., has received a set of new jaws for the crusher which will be put in position at once. The firm is desirous of satisfying the council and giving the city good value for its money, and will yet succeed in over-coming the present difficulty. The crusher has aiready worn out two sets of jaws.

Will, Millard, the expert trick cr-of laws.

Will. Millard, the expert trick cyclist was unable to get a ladder last night to ride from the balcony of the Opera House to the street, although a large crowd congregated in front of the Opera House to see him in his nervy act. Mr. Millard, however, that the people might not be disappointed, did some of his clever tricks on the pavement. One of Mr. Millard's acts on the streets of a city, is to ride across the fender of a moving car.

Some one last evening extracted the key from fire alarm box No. 12 and in serted it in the k-y-hole. Once the key is put in it can only be taken out by a key kept at the fire hall. The matter was reported to the chief of the department about half past eight last evening. He at once went down and took the key out. Thempering with the fire alarm box s. getting to be altogether too common. An earnest effort will be made to find the guilty parties and an example will be made of them.

A PLEASANT EVENING.

A very successful and enjoyable evening was spent by the Epworth League of the Victoria avenue Methodist church in social concourse last night. During the evening the following program was rendered: Instrumental duet, Miss Mary Brackin and William Brackin, report of district Epworth League convention, held at Dresden, by Mrs. I. E. Brock; instrumental duet by Misses Jackson and Maggs; report of evangelistic Fprward Movement, by Mrs. Nellie Gammage; recitation by Mr. Heath; instrumental solo, by Miss Clara Jordan. IONS WILL BE WEARING BEFORE WE WRITE THE YEAR 1900. Having bought our underwear direct from the mills this year places us in a better position to give you values than if we bought through jobbers.

The enthusiasm that flece lined underwear is arousing among its wearers, and the sincerity with which they speak of it and endorse it among their friends, is probably unprecedented in the underwear trade. The sales are jumping up at a pace that is remarkable, but it is only a proof of the axins; "that truth is mighty and will prevail", clothed in purple and tine lines was the ancients' idea of perfection in dress, they properly relegated the wooly sheepskin to the serfs.

And so those who know FLEECE LINED UNDERWEAR are casting aside wool. Imagine a fine close knitted fabric, porous, good weight, delightful to the touch, soft and delicate to the skin, and strange, but true, keeping the body was m when warmth
