TUGBOAT DROWNED
FOURTEEN WOMEN.
BUDAPEST, Oct. 10.—At midnight a tugboat ran down a fruit steamer in the Danube, near Budapest. Fourteen women were drowned, seven saved and many were seriously injured.

Franc Grunwald recently celebrated his 104th birthday in Germany. He is an inveterate smoker and the Kaiser gave him a medal, a new pipe and five pounds of tobacco as a birthday present.

ST. JOHN, N. B., OCTOBER 10, 1905.

ANOTHER TRANSCONTINENTAL.

While the Grand Trunk Pacific promoters are swarming over the country, turning occasional little green soda with golden shovels and extorting money from every province and municipality which does not refuse to be held up, there are two men in Canada who are quietly but rapidly building a railroad which promises to stretch into transcontinental proportions and to be completed before the boomed and bonused G. T. P. The road is the Canadian Northern and the men are McKenzie and Mann who, though they do not talk much and are seldom heard shrieking for grants and subsidies, are laying rails and sleepers east and west at a tremendous rate.

Already their line reaches from Winnipeg, through the most productive sections of the wheat belt almost to the Rockies and their most recent action has been the purchase of the Nipigon Railway which will connect their Canadian Northern system with their Ontario sections and be an important link in their connection with the eastern provinces. It certainly looks as if the idea was to stretch farther eastward for an Atlantic terminus where the immense export traffic which the road is bound to develop can be handled.

Under the circumstances it behooves St. John to keep an eye on these men and their road. If the Canadian Northern comes this way there will be no question of politics in the choice of the route. No silly fear about bonding privileges will prevent it from cutting across the shoulder of Maine and saving some hundreds of miles, and no desire to make votes will induce it to locate its terminus in an inland town.
The shortest route and the most convenient port will be chosen, regardless of political pull.

There is no question but that this route leads to St. John and that no equally accessible Canadian Atlantic port offers equal advantages.
This city will do well not to ignore the approach of this road in its plans for the future and not to allow its possible arrival here to be prevented by the aggressions of any rival company on our water frontage.

CIVIC ELECTIONS.
When that notable wave of reform, of which the worthy but somewhat infectious Citizens' League was the crest, was sweeping St. John last year, one of the suggested improvements in civic politics which found many advocates was the adoption of an alternate system of civic elections by which only a certain number of aldermen should be elected each year.

In view of the fact that there is a possibility of the policy being revived it is interesting to note that in Halifax where a system of this kind is in operation, there is great discontent and a strong demand for a return to the old conditions. The Acadia Recorder is one of the dissatisfied and expresses its objections as follows: "We frankly state that, without casting any reflection on the excellent body of men we now have in the council, we are in favor of a change so that elections for all the seats will be simultaneously held. However good a body of wise representatives we may now possess, there is no assurance that it will be always so under the present mode of election. Matters, too, may arise that would stir the ratepayers. At present the citizens would have to wait two years before getting a chance to cause a change in the majority. And while the agitation for one year would be sufficient to wipe out the offending aldermen, it is not so easy, however good the cause, to keep any question red-hot before ratepayers for twelve or thirteen months. Moreover it is not desirable and is disturbing to business."

The Telegraph announces that the per capita consumption in Canada in the last fiscal year of spirits, beers, wines and tobaccos, shows 1,031 gallons of spirits per head of population, 4,972 gallons of beer, 0.90 gallons of wine and 2,688 pounds of tobacco. This means that the average Canadian—man, woman and child—drank daily last year almost three gallons of beer and almost fourteen gallons of spirits, and also smoked about eight pounds of tobacco every day. It is presumptuous to express doubt of anything the Telegraph says but this looks like exaggeration. Certainly nobody in this office smoked that much.

A St. John newspaper publishes a view of the Zambesi Bridge and gravely tells its readers that the bridge is rapidly approaching completion.
Considering that Prof. Darwin standing several weeks ago, in the middle of the bridge on a train, formally declared it open, the St. John newspaper is apparently not quite up to date in its information.—Moncton Transcript.

Judge Davidson, of Montreal, is following in the footsteps of Mr. Justice Langley, of Nova Scotia. He is likely to become an expert on love. He had a forfeiting case before him the other day, and remarked that the only thing with which the young man could be reproached was that he pressed hard on the lips twice instead of gently and once. The judge is wrong. Not a boarding school in Toronto would endorse his finding.—Toronto News.

THE SOLITARY REAPER.

Behold her, single in the field, Yon solitary Highland Lass!
Reaping and singing by herself;
Stop here, or gently pass!
Alone she cuts and binds the grain,
And sings a melancholy strain;
O listen for the Vale profound, Where overflows the mournful sound.

No Nightingale did ever chant So sweetly to repeating bands Of travellers in some shady haunt, Among Arabian sands;
A voice so thrilling ne'er was heard In spring-dime from the Cuckoo-bird, Breaking the silence of the seas Among the farthest Hebrides.

Will no one tell me what she signs—Perhaps the plaintive numbers flow For old, unhappy, far-off things, And battles long ago?
Or is it some more humble lay, Familiar matter of the today?
Some natural sorrow, loss, or pain,
That has been, and may be again?

Whatever the theme, the Maiden sang As if her song could have no ending; I saw her singing at her work,
And o'er the sickle she bowed;
I listened, motionless and still;
And, as I mounted up the hill,
The music faded from the air.
Long after it was heard no more.
—William Wordsworth.

$50,000 FOR DISCOVERER OF CONSUMPTION CURE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—The Herald today says: Prof. Behring's announcement to the International Tuberculosis congress in Paris of a cure for consumption has aroused widespread interest in America. In New York's wealthiest and best known citizens whose name he withheld for the present he has authorized the Herald to announce that he will contribute $50,000 to a fund to present to Prof. Behring if he will at the 48 non-union men world his treatment and not withhold it for a year.

The only qualification to this offer is that the treatment first be pronounced successful by a competent committee of physicians. The donor is a doctor, one of the widest of practitioners in America, is to be a member.

NON-UNION MEN'S HARD TIME.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—A weary, hungry lot of non-union switchmen spent last night in box cars on a siding of the Grand Trunk freight yards at Elgin.
They did not take the lodgings from choice, but because the residents of Elgin, out of sympathy for the strikers, had driven every non-union man from shelter in the suburb. Every hot-tel, lodging quarters, boarding house and private residence in Elgin joined in the "boycott." Even the saloons refused admittance to the unwelcome strangers. Yesterday the Grand Trunk offered them some empty box cars on the siding. Blankets were procured and the 48 non-union men went superstitious to bed.

The railroad officials said that arrangements were made to house the men in barracks.

KIRKE LA SHELLE ESTATE, $20,529.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Although Kirke La Shelle, theatrical agent who died at Belport, L. I., on May 16 last, possessed considerable property, an appraisal shows that his estate was heavily mortgaged. His net real and personal property amounts to $20, 529.

DEATH OF FORMER ST.
JOHN BUSINESS MAN.

T. R. Culey, of Black River Road, on Saturday received a telegram from New York stating that he had news of the death of his brother, John R. Culey, at Elmhurst, N. Y. Deceased was sixty-four years of age, married, had one son and one daughter at Elm-hurst. T. R. Culey, of St. John, was brother and sister in law of John R.
Culey, of British Columbia. He will be well remembered here as a member of the firm of Culey, Brundage and Wood.
Some sixteen years ago Mr. Culey removed to the States and had since resided there.

BAD FIRE IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Cut off from all escape, twenty persons were rescued from death in a blazing tenement in Sixth street tonight by two unknown heroes and three policemen, every one of the panic-stricken tenants being saved before the arrival of the firemen.
Hearing the alarm that followed the discovery of the fire in the hallway of the second floor, two laborers at work on a gas main in the street rushed into the blazing building and making their way to the upper floor, helped many women and children to the fire escapes.
They were soon joined by three policemen who stationed themselves on the escape galleries and passed the occupants down from hand to hand. The upper floors of the building were completely gutted.

THOMAS LAWSON CHARGED WITH CRIMINAL LIBEL.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 9.—Application for a warrant charging Thomas W.
Lawson with criminal libel was made today in the Municipal Court. Clarence W. Barron, of a Boston newsbureau, is the complainant. The warrant was not granted at the time, but a hearing has been ordered for Tuesday morning.

The complaint is based on an advertisement which appeared in newspapers in this and other cities, under the heading "Legal Notice," warning all newsmen, news agents and probable purchasers of Everybody's Magazine, except in the cities of Hartford and Poughkeepsie, from handling copies.
Just previous to this announcement a small personal notice appeared in the newspapers, announcing that Mr. Barron had started on an automobile trip through the western part of Massachusetts, and on his way west would pass through Poughkeepsie and Hartford. Through the advertisement, it is declared, it was made to appear that it had been inserted by Mr. Barron.

A CALL DOWN.

Mr. Newswell—You mustn't be envious of other people. That's a fault that you cannot find in me.

Mrs. Newswell—No, you don't believe there is anybody better than you are, or that anyone possibly could be.

VICTORY FOR NORWAY'S GOVT.

CHRISTIANIA, Norway, Oct. 10.— After two days spent in an excited discussion of the Storting at 1.30 o'clock this morning proceeded to a division on the proposal of the Republican minority to submit the Karstad agreement concerning the dissolution of the union between Norway and Sweden to a referendum.

The proposal was rejected by a vote of 109 to 8.

The agreement was then accepted by a vote of 101 to 16.

This is a great victory for the government.

CHRISTIANIA, Oct. 9.—In the course of the debate Premier Michelsen made an interesting speech on the question of the selection of a king. He said that the offer of the throne to a member of the House of Bernadotte was made as an expression of good will. It had, apparently, however, been otherwise interpreted in Sweden as according to King Oscar's observations to foreign newspaper men, his majesty would regard his approval of such a selection as a personal sacrifice.
In conclusion the premier said that the question now appeared to be outside actual politics. Premier Michelsen's statement is regarded as a withdrawal of Norway's offer of the throne to a member of the Bernadotte family.
