AMUSEMENTS.

THE STAR, ST. JOHN N. B. SATURDAY, MARCH 6 1909

DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE ON THE CAMERAPHONE.

Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, Richard Mansfield's most famous role, will be presented by the Cameraphone again tonight, giving the principal transformation scenes in Dr. Jekyll's dispensary. An imitation of David Warfield in his greatest success, The Music Master, is another good dramatic picture. Webb and Moulin (the little people), who sing three very pretty musical numbers, are a very clever team. Their songs are She Hasn't Done Her Hair Up Yet, I've Taken Quite a Fancy To You, and Bon Bon Buddie. A very funny comedy is entitled Krausmeyer's Party. This is full of witty German dialect comedy and finishes with a Dutch song.

Miss McDonald is singing new songs

MOINSTER MATINEE AT NICKEL.

This afternoon at the Nickel the children will hold high carnival again as a particularly fine programme awaits them, something that the most exacting parent could not object to in the least. The leading picture is Pagan and Christian, Thos. A. Edison's latest and most elaborate reel of film, depicting a strong drama in the early days of Christendom. The other pictures are: His First Flight, a funny film tale of a man who went up in an airship and "Now I'm Here I'll Stay,"

Dr. Pugsley—"I did not state I had let any contracts in Courtenay Bay. The honorable member is arawing upon a moving-day episode. Miss Holmes and Mr. Buchanan will sing their excellent solos and will also sing as a special for the little ones their irresistable duet, "Take a Little Walk With Me." Mr. Courtnais has a new callad. In the evening the same programme introduce a most delightful novelty entitled An Evening With the Old Folks at Home, during which musical act they will sing Annie Laurie, Killarney and Swanee River. One of the features of this act will be congregational singing in the audience and full orchestral effect. It will last fully twele or fifteen minutes.
